News and Notes

Manhattan earned its third victory in the last five MAAC contests on Sunday rolling to a 65-53 triumph over Marist at Draddy Gymnasium. Rhamel Brown exploded for 18 points, seven rebounds and a career-high seven blocks to lead the Jaspers.

Freshman forward Shane Richards was named the MAAC Rookie of the Week on Monday after he averaged 14.5 points and buried eight 3-pointers in two appearances last week. Richards scored a team-high 18 points on six 3-pointers Thursday against Rider, matching his career-high in both categories. Then on Sunday, he scored 11 points to help lift Manhattan past Marist.

Jaspers' junior point guard Michael Alvarado returned to action against Marist after missing the previous three games due to an ankle injury he suffered on Jan. 1 against Stony Brook. Alvarado scored eight points and grabbed a career-high five rebounds in 22 minutes off the bench. Additionally, two-time All-MAAC guard George Beamon has been sidelined by the Manhattan medical staff for the remainder of the season with an ankle injury.

Manhattan and Canisius enter the contest on Thursday tied for fifth place in the MAAC standings. The Jaspers trip to Buffalo ends a stretch of nine straight games Manhattan played in the metropolitan area.

2012-2013 Manhattan Men's Basketball Game Notes

Scouting Report Manhattan

The Jaspers have won three of their last five MAAC games, which includes their most recent victory over Marist (65-53) on Sunday at Draddy Gymnasium. Manhattan has held its conference opponents to 55 or fewer points in all three wins. The Jaspers have yielded 61.7 points per game in MAAC contests.

Junior forward Rhamel Brown has established himself as one of the top big men in the MAAC. Brown leads the conference and ranks in the top-30 nationally in field goal percentage (56.7%) and blocked shots (2.7 bpg). The 6'7" Brooklyn native has scored in double-figures in the Jaspers' last seven games. He is coming off an 18 point performance against Marist where he shot 7-for-10 from the field. Brown averaged 15.1 points, 7.4 rebounds and has averaged 3.6 blocks in the last nine games. He set a career-high blocking seven shots on two occasions in the last three games at Iona (Jan. 6) and Marist (Jan. 13). Brown is also fourth in the MAAC averaging 7.1 rebounds per contest.

Reigning MAAC Rookie of the Week Shane Richards is developing into a key contributor for the Jaspers. Richards is coming off back-to-back double-digit scoring performances last week. The 6'5" freshman forward from New York City has averaged 9.9 points and has buried a team-high 28 three-pointers in the last 10 games, which dates back to his first career start at Marist. Richards stands second in the MAAC averaging 3.0 three-pointers per contest against league opponents.

The Jaspers enjoyed good news when junior point guard Michael Alvarado returned to the court on Sunday against Marist. Alvarado was sidelined for three games with an ankle injury that he suffered on Jan. 1 against Stony Brook. Alvarado has posted 8.4 points and 2.1 assists per game in 13 appearances this season. He has the sixth best free-throw shooting percentage in the MAAC with a 81.1% mark at the charity stripe.

Manhattan delivered its top shooting performance of the year on Sunday in the 12-point victory over Marist. The Jaspers shot 53.8% (21-39) from the field, including a 68.2% (15-22) shooting effort in the first half. Manhattan's relentless defense stifled the Red Foxes as they held them to a season best 31.9% (15-47) field goal mark.

Canisius

The Golden Griffis have dropped four of their last five contests, including buzzer beating setback at Siena (Jan. 11) and a 10-point loss at Iona (Jan. 13). Canisius won eight of its first 10 games this season, featuring a non-conference victory at Temple on Dec. 19. The Golden Griffis are 6-1 at home this season.

Canisius first year head coach Jim Barron has revamped a team that won only five games last season. The Golden Griffis rank third in the MAAC averaging 74.0 points per game. Junior guard Billy Baron leads the team and stands fifth in the MAAC averaging 17.3 points, starting all 17 games. Baron is the MAAC's assist leader with 5.9 per game.

The Golden Griffis lead the league with a 39.6% three-point field goal percentage. Senior forward Isaac Sosa is second in the MAAC with 50 three-point field goals. The transfer from Central Florida is averaging 11.7 points per game. Senior guard Harold Washington tops the team with a 43.3% three-point shooting percentage. He has posted 13.8 points per game.

Last Game

Manhattan 65, Marist 53
January 13, 2013
Riverdale, N.Y. - Draddy Gymnasium

Rhamel Brown exploded for 18 points, seven rebounds and a career-high seven blocks lifting Manhattan to a 65-53 victory over Marist on Sunday at Draddy Gymnasium. Jaspers' freshman forward Shane Richards scored in double-figures for the second straight game with 11 points, while junior point guard Michael Alvarado added eight points and a career-high five rebounds in his first appearance since suffering an ankle injury on Jan. 1.

Manhattan shot a season-high 53.8% (21-39) from the field in the wire-to-wire victory without injured All-MAAC senior guard George Beamon. Nine Jaspers got in the scoring column in a balanced offensive attack. Graduate student Roberto Colonette chipped in seven points, going along with five rebounds in 15 minutes of action.

Marist received a game-high 21 points from senior guard Devin Price. The Jaspers defense limited Marist to a mere 31.9% (15-47) shooting.

The Jaspers shot a hot 68.2% (15-22) from the field in the first half to open an 18-point lead. Brown had nine points by intermission on 4-for-4 shooting and he finished 7-for-10 from the field in the contest.

It marked Manhattan's third double-digit margin of victory this season as the Jaspers improved to 3-2 at home.

Last Meeting

Manhattan 90, Canisius 77
February 24, 2012
Riverdale, N.Y. - Draddy Gymnasium

Manhattan delivered its second highest scoring performance of the 2011-12 campaign earning a 90-77 victory over Canisius at Draddy Gymnasium. Jaspers' guard George Beamon erupted for a double-double finishing with a game-high 28 points and 10 rebounds. Donovan Kates poured in a career-high 18 points and shot 6-for-8 from the field in Manhattan's 20th victory of the season.

Rhamel Brown had a perfect night finishing with 13 points as he did not miss a shot. He went 5-for-5 from the field and 3-for-3 at the free-throw line. Brown added six rebounds and blocked three shots.

The Jaspers shot 52.9% from the field and 47.6% from downtown hitting 10 three-pointers. Manhattan dished out 23 assists on 36 field goals with Kidani Brutus leading the team with four assists.

Ashwan Hymes was the Golden Griffis top scorer with 23 points. Hymes knocked down five three-pointers. Gaby Belardo added 19 points and Harold Washington was the third Canisius player to post double-figures with 12 points.

Series History

Manhattan and Canisius meet for the 81st time in series history. The Jaspers swept the regular-season series last year with a 12.5-point margin in the victories.

The Jaspers have won 16 of the last 21 meetings with Canisius. Manhattan is 5-1 in its last six trips to the Koessler Athletic Center, while also winning eight of their last 10 meetings in Buffalo.

Last season, George Beamon went off for 33 points as Manhattan took a 78-66 victory at the Koessler Athletic Center. Rhamel Brown powered the Manhattan bench with 10 points on 5-for-6 shooting, going along with seven rebounds and three blocks.

Manhattan owns a 48-32 (.600) record all-time against Canisius since the series began in 1909-1910.

Richards Named MAAC Rookie of the Week

Manhattan freshman forward Shane Richards was named the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference Rookie of the Week on Monday. Richards averaged 14.5 points and buried eight 3-pointers in two appearances against Rider and Marist.

Richards exploded for a team-high 18 points on Thursday, knocking down a career-high six 3-pointers against Rider before a national audience on ESPN3. The 6'5" New York City native shot 46.2% beyond the arc in 31 minutes off the bench as he matched a career-high in scoring.

Then on Sunday, Richards delivered his second straight double-digit scoring effort, posting 11 points to help lead Manhattan to a 65-53 victory over Marist. Richards sank two 3-pointers in the contest, shot 50% from the field and hit all three free-throw attempts.

Richards has developed into one of the Jaspers top contributors this season. He has averaged 10 points per contest in the last 10 games, since earning his first career start on Dec. 7 at Marist. He leads Manhattan with 28 3-pointers this season, and he ranks second in the MAAC averaging 3.0 per game against conference opponents.

Jaspers Challenged with Non-League Slate

Manhattan played arguably the most difficult non-conference schedule in the MAAC this season. Coming off a 21-win campaign, returning all five starters and 81.2% of the scoring offense, Manhattan compiled an aggressive non-league slate that featured five teams that advanced to the 2012 postseason and won 20+ games last year (Louisville, Harvard, Dayton, LIU Brooklyn, Stony Brook). The Jaspers did not account for the 2011-12 MAAC scoring champion George Beamon to go down with an ankle injury two days before the opener at Louisville. Despite the setback, Manhattan has fared well as the team is finding its identity with a roster that features

Category	MAAC	Non-Conf
Record	3-3	2-8
Points	63.8	54.8
Points Allowed	61.7	66.2
FG Pct.	43.0%	38.2%

Turnovers	14.0	19.3
Rebounds	34.7	30.9
Rebounding Margin	+1.4	-3.7
Assists	12.3	10.1

Preseason All-MAAC selections Rhamel Brown, Michael Alvarado and Emmy Andujar. The Jaspers are playing at a higher level since entering the MAAC schedule winning three of their last five league games.

Block Party

Jaspers' junior forward Rhamel Brown engraved his name in the Manhattan men's basketball record book. The 6'7" forward set the program's single season blocks record last season with 84 rejections. Brown's 2.47 blocks per game average ranked in the top-20 nationally in 2011-2012, leading the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference in this category for the second straight year.

In 2010-2011, Brown blocked 68 shots, which is the highest total ever by a Jasper freshman, leading the MAAC with 2.2 blocks per game.

Brown is second on the program's career blocks list and on pace to break the Manhattan record held by Steve Grant (220, 1974-78).

Career Blocks

2012-2013 Manhattan Men's Basketball Game Notes

Youth Movement

Injuries that sidelined All-MAAC guards George Beamon and Michael Alvarado provided the Jasper underclassmen opportunities that they have seized as of late. Freshman forward Shane Richards has fully embraced his increased minutes as he is averaging 11.0 points with 14 three-point field goals in 25.4 minutes in the last five games. Richards scored a career-high 18 points on six threes on two occasions this season at Barclays Center against South Carolina (Dec. 22) and against Rider (Jan. 10) at Draddy Gymnasium.

Freshman point guard CJ Jones had his top three games of the season recently. Jones complemented Richards who had a game-high 16 points in the 55-53 victory at Saint Peter's on Friday by sinking back-to-back clutch layups in the last five minutes. Defensively, he smothered the Peacocks guards forcing multiple turnovers in the back-court. Jones scored eight points on 3-for-5 shooting at Iona on Jan. 6. Last Thursday, he erupted for eight of his career-high 11 points, going along with four rebounds and three assists against Rider.

First year guard RaShawn Stores has also shined this season. Stores leads the Jaspers with 44 assists and is ranked in the top-15 of the MAAC with 2.8 assists per game. The sophomore from the Bronx had his top performance of the year leading Manhattan to a 20-point victory over Siena (Dec. 9). Stores exploded for career-highs with 12 points, six assists and shot a perfect 4-for-4 from beyond the arc.

Manhattan Inks Three to NLI's

Manhattan signed three highly-touted student-athletes during the NCAA Early Signing Period. Former five-star recruit and elite junior college prospect Chris Thomas (Denver, Colo./Chipola College), along with incoming freshmen, 6'10" center Carlton Allen (Ewing, N.J./Life Center Academy) and 6'0" guard Tyler Wilson (Bronx, N.Y./Cardinal Hayes) signed their National Letters of Intent to play for the Jaspers in 2013-14.

Thomas is 6'5" shooting guard from Colorado who is regarded as one of the purest scorers in the nation with high-major talent. He will come to Manhattan after one season playing at Chipola College for head coach Patrick Blake in Marianna, Fla. Chipola was the preseason fourth-ranked team in the country on the National Junior College Athletic Association (NJCAA) poll. Thomas was ranked as the #1 shooting guard and fifth overall prospect by Rivals.com and was an ESPN Super 60 recruit.

Allen comes to Manhattan from Life Center Academy in Burlington, N.J., where he plays for head coach Pervis Ellison, an 11-year NBA veteran. Allen is a 6'10", 240-pound student-athlete who provides a low post scoring threat for the Jaspers. He maneuvers well in the deep post and has a repertoire of inside moves, including the jump hook, according to ESPN.com. ESPN.com also ranks Allen as the 41st player at his position in 2013 class.

Wilson is a speedy guard who handles the ball well and is a legitimate scoring threat. He helped lead Cardinal Hayes to the Catholic High School Athletic Association (CHSAA) Class AA intersectional semifinals as a junior. He averaged approximately 12 points and seven assists per game last year, after playing two years at Rice High School.

Stores Garners MAAC Rookie of the Week

First-year guard RaShawn Stores was named the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference Rookie of the Week on Dec. 10. The 5'11" point guard from the Bronx averaged 10.5 points shooting 61.5% (8-13) from the field in two games. He also added nine assists without having a turnover and buried 71.4% (5-7) of his three-point field goal attempts.

Stores had his top performance of the week against Siena (Dec. 9) as he helped the Jaspers earn a 75-55 triumph. He set career highs with 12 points and six assists, while shooting a perfect 4-for-4 from three-point territory. Stores also grabbed five rebounds and swiped two steals in 24 minutes off the bench.

MAAC Player of the Week Honors

Manhattan senior guard George Beamon was named MAAC Player of the Week on Nov. 26 after averaging 24.0 points and 5.5 rebounds in the two contests against Hofstra and Dayton. Beamon shot 64% (16-25) from the field and 81.3% (13-16) at the free-throw line, making a seamless transition back into the starting lineup after missing the Jaspers' first two contests with an injury.

Beamon exploded for 29 points and grabbed seven rebounds to lead Manhattan to a 67-56 victory over Hofstra. He shot 10-for-15 (66.7%) from the field and it was his 19th career 20+point performance.

The Roslyn, N.Y., native continued his superb play at Dayton as he delivered his 50th straight double-figure scoring effort. Beamon finished with 19 points, four rebounds, three assists and three steals. He was 6-for-10 (60%) from the field and 6-for-6 at the free-throw line.

Beamon Among Top Returning Scorers in Nation

Manhattan guard George Beamon entered his final season in Riverdale ranked among the top returning scorers in the country. Beamon, the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference's (MAAC) reigning scoring champion, has finished in the top-3 of the league's chart the last two years. The 6'4" native of Roslyn, N.Y., averaged a career-high 19.0 points per game last season, which has landed him 7th place among all returning players in NCAA Division I. Beamon's 2011-2012 scoring average is also the 6th highest among returning seniors for the 2012-2013 campaign.

Chuck Martin	1999-2000 (AC)	Head Coach, Marist

The Masiello Project

Manhattan head coach Steve Masiello quickly restored the winning tradition in Riverdale with the greatest turn around in program history last season. The Jaspers' 21-13 overall record last season was the second best record by a Manhattan first-year head coach post-World War II era. It is only behind Fran Frascilla who finished the 1992-93 campaign 23-7 after inheriting a team coming off a 25-9 season under the direction of head coach Steve Lappas.

Manhattan Top of the Heap in Media Polls

After only one season with Steve Masiello at the helm, Manhattan was picked to finish the 2012-13 campaign atop the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference (MAAC), a position the program was familiar with during his time as an assistant coach (2001-2005). According to Yahoo! Sports and CBSSports.com, the Jaspers are the MAAC's preseason favorite. CBSSports.com also had Manhattan senior guard George Beamon as the projected conference Player of the Year.

Manhattan Second on MAAC Preseason Poll

Manhattan garnered its highest preseason ranking in seven years on the annual MAAC Preseason Coaches' Poll. The Jaspers were selected to finish as the league's runner up in 2012-13 as announced on ESPN3. Manhattan received two first place votes, and was eight points behind preseason favorite Loyola, the defending conference champion.

Preseason All-MAAC Honors

Manhattan had a league-best four players selected to the 2012-13 Preseason All-MAAC Team. Senior guard George Beamon was named to the First Team, while juniors Michael Alvarado, Rhamel Brown and sophomore Emmy Andujar received Third Team honors. These four Jaspers combined for 60% of the team's scoring last season and more than 50% of rebounding and assists for a squad that won 21-games.

Beamon is a two-time All-MAAC selection who was named to the First Team last year after leading the MAAC in scoring with 19.0 points per game. He posted double-figures in the scoring column in all 33 appearances in 2011-12 and led the team in points 26 times. Beamon ranked in the top-25 nationally for scoring average, and he finished in the top-10 of the MAAC for field goal percentage (48.5% - 10th), free-throw shooting (80.1% - 4th), steals (1.5 - 6th), three-point field goal percentage (42.7% - 4th) and three-point field goals (61 - 9th). Beamon scored 1,131 points in the previous two seasons.

Alvarado, a junior guard, was named to the All-MAAC Third Team in 2011-12. He started 26 of 30 appearances and tied for second on the team in scoring (8.5) and assists per game (3.2), which was also the sixth best average in the MAAC. Alvarado ranked among the leaders in the conference with a 76.6% free-throw percentage.

Brown is a 6'7" forward who earned the MAAC Defensive Player of the Year award last season. Brown led the MAAC with 2.5 blocks per game. He appeared in all 34 games for the Jaspers averaging 7.9 points and 4.9 rebounds in 19.1 minutes per game. He ranked second in the MAAC with a 60.1% field goal percentage.

Andujar was a MAAC All-Rookie Team selection in 2011-12. He started 32 of 33 appearances tying for second on the team in scoring with Alvarado (8.5 ppg). The 6'6" forward dished out a team-high 105 assists and led Manhattan with 189 rebounds.

Manhattan Staff

Manhattan second-year head coach Steve Masiello reloaded his coaching staff for the 2012-2013 season after former assistants Scott Padgett and Rashon Burno earned elevated coaching positions at other NCAA Division I institutions. During the offseason, Padgett was named associate head coach at Samford University in Birmingham, Ala., and Burno became an assistant coach under two-time national championship head coach Billy Donovan at the University of Florida.

The Jaspers current staff still features Associate Head Coach Matt Grady, who enters his second season in Riverdale. He brings a plethora of high level collegiate experience from his time at Louisville, Cincinnati, Murray State and Morehead State. Grady oversees the primary scouting and game planning responsibilities. "Matt is one of the best basketball minds out there," says Masiello.

Masiello reunited with assistant coach Rasheen Davis, who joined the staff in April. Davis came to Riverdale from Xavier, where he spent the previous two years as an assistant coach on Chris Mack's staff. Davis helped the Musketeers to back-to-back NCAA Tournament appearances, including a run to the Sweet Sixteen in 2011-12. He joined the Division I coaching ranks in 2007-08 as a program assistant at Louisville under head coach Rick Pitino and Masiello, who was an assistant on the staff.

Oliver Antigua is the third assistant on the Jaspers' staff. He joined the program in June after a successful career at St. Raymond High School in the Bronx, where he coached the Ravens to five Catholic High School Athletic Association (CHSAA) Class AA championships over his 13-year tenure. Antigua's brother Orlando is an assistant coach at Kentucky.

Jaspers in the Hall

Coinciding with the MAAC Championships moving to the MassMutual Center in Springfield, Mass., through 2014, a 600-square foot permanent display dedicated to the conference opened at the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame in October 2011. The MAAC Experience includes historical items and artifacts from the MAAC's rich 32-year history. In addition, all 10 MAAC schools have their own display within the exhibit. Manhattan's display features a commemorative No. 23 jersey worn by former Manhattan player, coach and athletic director Jack Powers '58, the former Executive Director of the NIT. Powers was Manhattan's first men's basketball inductee to the MAAC Honor Roll in March at the 2012 MAAC Championships.

The 2013 MAAC Honor Roll Class will feature Manhattan standout Keith Bullock '93 who will be inducted into The MAAC Experience exhibit this March during the MAAC Tournament. The 1990 MAAC Rookie of the Year, Bullock helped lead a renaissance of Manhattan basketball. He was a key starter on the 1992 team that snapped the Jaspers' 15-year postseason drought by earning a berth in the National Invitation Tournament (NIT).

As a senior in 1993, Bullock was named the MAAC Player of the Year and MAAC Tournament MVP, as Manhattan won its first MAAC title and reached the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 1958. A three-time First Team All-MAAC selection, Bullock finished his career with 1,992 points, 1,012 rebounds, ranking him second in program history on both lists.

#The6thBorough

#The6thBorough is the newly formed Official Manhattan Basketball Student Section in Draddy Gymnasium that made its debut at Manhattan Madness in October.

#The6thBorough was a concept developed by Student Government in conjunction with the Student Activities Office and the Athletic Department. #The6thBorough is located in the end zone closest to the visiting bench. Over 2,000 #The6thBorough t-shirts were distributed to students in an effort to organize involvement at basketball games and build a stronger home court advantage.

Manhattan All-Time Record

In its 107th season, the Manhattan College men's basketball program boasts a 1273-1142 (.527) overall record and 237-265 (.472) MAAC mark in 32 seasons as a conference member. The Jaspers' storied men's basketball team was established in 1904-05 and served a two-year hiatus due to World War II (1943-44 & 1944-45).

Jaspers at Draddy Gymnasium

Draddy Gymnasium has played host to several Jasper victories and memorable moments since it opened in 1978. Manhattan holds a 243-176 (.579) all-time record at Draddy Gymnasium.

What's a Jasper?

The unique nickname of Manhattan College's athletic teams, the Jaspers, comes from one of the College's most memorable figures, Brother Jasper of Mary, F.S.C., who served at the College in the late 19th century.

One of the greatest achievements of Brother Jasper was that he brought the then little-known sport of baseball to Manhattan College and became the team's first coach. Since Brother Jasper was also the Prefect of Discipline, he supervised the student fans at Manhattan College baseball games while also directing the team itself.

During one particularly warm and humid day when Manhattan College was playing a semi-pro baseball team called the Metropolitan, Brother Jasper noticed the Manhattan students were becoming restless and edgy as Manhattan came to bat in the seventh inning of a close game. To relieve the tension, Brother Jasper called time-out and told the students to stand up and stretch for a few minutes until the game resumed.

Since the College annually played the New York Giants in the late 1880's and into the 1890's at the old Polo Grounds, the Manhattan College practice of the "seventh inning stretch" spread into the major leagues, where it has now become a time-honored custom practiced by millions of fans annually.

2012-2013 Manhattan Men's Basketball Game Notes

Head Coach Steve Masiello Second Season (26-24)

Manhattan College head coach Steve Masiello has quickly restored the winning tradition to the storied men's basketball program in Riverdale, laying the foundation for the Jaspers' return to prominence. Masiello has rejuvenated the Jaspers with strong national recruiting that has transformed Manhattan into a top contender in the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference for years to come.

Long-time ESPN college basketball commentator Dick Vitale has even noted, "Remember this name, Steve Masiello. A young, rising coach doing a great job at Manhattan."

Masiello was named Manhattan's 23rd head coach in program history on April 11, 2011. He arrived back in his native New York after spending six years in the Big East as an assistant at Louisville under head coach Rick Pitino.

In his first season at Manhattan, the Jaspers enjoyed the biggest turnaround in the nation, posting 21 victories in 2011-2012, a 15-win improvement from the previous season. It went down as the largest turnaround in program history, and he posted the second most wins by a Manhattan first-year head coach, trailing only Fran Fraschilla's 23 victories in 1992-93.

Masiello garnered Co-Coach of the Year honors by the Metropolitan Writer's Association in 2011-12 as he led Manhattan to its first postseason appearance since 2006. The Jaspers advanced to the Second Round of the CollegeInsider.com Tournament (CIT). Masiello mentored three All-MAAC selections in 2011-2012, including First Team honoree and the league's scoring champion George Beamon.

The Jaspers have also excelled in the classroom under Masiello. Three players earned both MAAC All-Academic distinction and the prestigious Honors Court recognition by the National Association of Basketball Coaches (NABC) in 2012. It marked the most student-athlete honorees on both award lists out of the 10 MAAC institutions.

Over his six-year tenure at Louisville, Masiello helped lead the Cards to a 148-61 (.708) overall record, six straight 20-win seasons and four NCAA Tournament appearances. Louisville advanced to the Elite Eight twice (2008 & 2009) during that time. Masiello played a vital role in building Louisville's 2009 Big East Championship team, which won 31 games, including a program record 16 in conference, and entered the NCAA Tournament as the No. 1 overall seed. One of the nation's most renowned recruiters, Masiello effectively directed the Cards' recruiting efforts by signing four Top-20 recruiting classes, which included four McDonald's All-Americans over his time in Louisville. The Cards' 2008 recruiting class garnered a No. 4 national ranking, featuring 2008 USA Today High School National Player of the Year and future NBA player Samardo Samuels.

Masiello was named one of the nation's Top 25 collegiate assistant coaches according to FoxSports.com (2010) & Rivals.com (2007). He managed the Cards' game preparation and scouting responsibilities for his last three years with the program as Louisville amassed a 76-29 (.724) overall record, including a 39-15 (.722) mark in the Big East during this stretch.

Masiello is back in Riverdale for his second coaching tenure at Manhattan. He previously helped lead the Jaspers to three postseason appearances in four years (2001-2005) as an assistant, which included two trips to the NCAA Tournament (2003 & 2004) and one to the NIT (2002). Under his tutelage, the Jaspers posted an 83-36 (.697) overall record and won the 2003 & 2004 Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference Championships. Masiello was a key contributor on the Jaspers' coaching staff which helped lead Manhattan to its third NCAA Tournament victory in program history in 2004, defeating Florida in the First Round. Prior to Manhattan, Masiello served as the administrative assistant at Tulane under head coach Shawn Finney for one year (2000-01).

A 2000 graduate of the University of Kentucky with a degree in communications, Masiello was a four-year member of the Wildcats' basketball team, playing under head coaches Rick Pitino (1996-97) and Tubby Smith (1997-2000). During his playing career, Kentucky went to the Final Four twice (1997 & 1998), advancing to the National Championship game both times and winning the title in 1998. Masiello was named the Wildcats' co-captain his senior year. Masiello hails from White Plains, N.Y., and attended Archbishop Stepinac High School. He completed his final two years at the Harvey School in Katonah, N.Y., where he helped the basketball program win the New England Prep School Athletic Association Championship. Masiello also served as a ball boy for the New York Knicks during his youth.
