News and Notes

Manhattan enters its contest with Fairfield coming off one of its more impressive victories of the season rolling to a 67-54 triumph over Canisius Thursday at Draddy Gymnasium. The Jaspers had their top shooting performance of the year going 54.8% from the field, while holding their ninth straight opponent to less than 70 points. Sophomore forward Donovan Kates led Manhattan with 14 points. Junior forward Rhamel Brown added 13 points on a perfect 6-for-6 shooting night. Jaspers' guards Michael Alvarado (10) and RaShawn Stores (10) also scored in double-figures as they combined for a perfect 5-for-5 three-point shooting mark.

The Jaspers have put together three wins in the last four games, their most successful stretch of the season. Manhattan has held these four opponents to 55.0 points per game and a mere 36.6% shooting mark. Manhattan will play its next three MAAC games at home, before finishing the conference slate at Loyola on March 3.

Junior forward Rhamel Brown is one block away from tying the program's career record set by Steve Grant (220, 1974-78). Brown's 67 blocks are tied for fourth for a single season with Grant. He set the single season record last year with 84 blocks, and Brown holds third place on the chart with 68 as a freshman.

First year point guard RaShawn Stores earned his second MAAC Rookie of the Week Award last Monday after averaging 8.5 points over two contests. Stores delivered his top performance of the week on Sunday scoring 10 points in the win over Saint Peter's. He knocked down 7-of-8 (87.5%) free-throw attempts in his fourth double-digit scoring effort this season.

2012-2013 Manhattan Men's Basketball Game Notes

Scouting Report Manhattan

Manhattan earned its third victory in four games and picked up its second consecutive win Thursday with a 67-54 triumph over Canisius. The Jaspers delivered an impressive all-around performance shooting a season-high 54.8% from the field, while holding Canisius nearly 20 points below their season scoring average.

Sophomore Donovan Kates posted his second straight double-digit scoring performance finishing with a team-high 14 points on 5-for-8 shooting. Kates knocked down two three-pointers. The 6'6" forward from Hopkinsville, Ky. averaged 12.0 points and 4.0 rebounds in the Jaspers' last two wins.

Jaspers' forward Rhamel Brown has been a force in the paint over the last four games averaging 14.3 points shooting 63.2% from the field and posting 4.5 blocks per contest. Brown has delivered 15 double-digit scoring performances this season, including a 13 point outing against Canisius where he went 6-for-6 from the field. The 6'7" forward from Brooklyn is one block away from tying Steve Grant (1974-78, 220) for the program's career record. Brown ranks 14th nationally with 2.91 blocks per game. He leads the MAAC with a 57.5% field goal percentage and he is fifth with 6.7 rebounds per game.

The Jaspers have relied on the solid play of junior point guard Michael Alvarado, as of late. Alvarado returned to the starting line up against Rider on Jan. 27 for the first time since going down with an ankle injury against Stony Brook (Jan. 1). Starting in the last four games, Alvarado has averaged 9.8 points, 4.0 assists, 1.5 steals and he is shooting 91.3% (21-23) from the free-throw line. He is fourth in the league shooting 82.8% at the line on the season.

Manhattan is one of the top defensive teams in the MAAC holding conference opponents to 59.2 points and a 39.4% field goal percentage. The Jaspers have held their last six opponents below 40% shooting. Manhattan has also kept 12 of 13 MAAC opponents below 70 points.

Fairfield

The Stags rival Manhattan as one of the top defensive teams in the league. Fairfield leads the MAAC yielding 58.6 points to league opponents and a 39.3% field goal defense.

Fairfield enters the contest riding a five game win streak with three of these games played on their home court at Webster Bank Arena at Harbor Yard in Bridgeport, Conn. The Stags are led by senior guard Derek Needham who is ninth in the conference averaging 14.5 points. Needham and Desmond Wade are one of the top backcourts in the MAAC as they both rank in the top-10 on the conference's assist list. Wade is fourth with 3.8 assists per game, while Needham is ninth with 3.4.

Junior Maurice Barrow has come off the bench in all 13 MAAC games for the Stags. The 6'5", 210-pound forward from Christ the King High School in Queens averaged 11.6 points and 5.2 rebounds against league opponents. He is also shooting a team-high 56.0% from the field in MAAC games.

Fairfield is in sixth place in the MAAC standings, only one game ahead of Manhattan.

Last Game

Manhattan 67, Canisius 54
February 7, 2013
Riverdale, N.Y. - Draddy Gymnasium

Four Jaspers scored in double-figures as Manhattan rolled to an impressive 67-54 victory over Canisius on Thursday. Sophomore forward Donovan Kates led the way with 14 points in the Jaspers' top shooting performance of the year (54.8%). The Jaspers defensive intensity limited Canisius to their second lowest point total of the year.

Manhattan was powered by the high octane energy of junior forward Rhamel Brown who scored 13 points on a perfect 6-for-6 shooting. He swatted three shots to move within one block of tying former Jasper standout Steve Grant (220, 1974-78) for the program's career record.

Jasper guards Michael Alvarado and RaShawn Stores led a 53.7% (7-13) three-point shooting effort as they combined for 5-for-5 beyond the arc. Stores hit three to score 13 of Manhattan's 25 bench points. Alvarado had 10 points with two treys, going along with a game-high four assists.

Manhattan scored the first seven points of the game and never looked back. The Jaspers opened a 27-point lead in the second half, their largest of the season.

Sophomore forward Emmy Andujar contributed eight points and a team-high five rebounds in Manhattan's third win in four games.

Canisius was led by Alshawan Hymes who scored eight of his game-high 16 points in the last 28 seconds. Billy Baron had 14 in the loss.

Last Meeting

Fairfield 69, Manhattan 57
March 18, 2012
Fairfield, Conn. - Alumni Hall

Manhattan fell to Fairfield 69-57 in the Second Round of the CollegelInsider.com Tournament (CIT) at Alumni Hall in Fairfield, Conn. George Beamon led the Jaspers in scoring for the 26th time of the 2011-12 season with 16 points. Jaspers' forward Emmy Andujar posted 11 points and 12 rebounds.

The Stags were led by forward Maurice Barrow who scored a game-high 18 points and six rebounds. Fairfield mounted a game-changing 21-4 run over a nine minute span in the second half to open a comfortable lead. Stags' forward Rakim Sanders scored five of his nine points during the spurt.

Rhamel Brown, Roberto Colonette and Michael Alvarado each scored eight points for Manhattan. Mohamed Koita added six points and five rebounds to the Jaspers effort.

Fairfield shot 50.8% (31-61) from the field to Manhattan's 44.4% (24-54) field goal percentage. The Jaspers struggled from downtown, going 1-for-11 (9.1%).

Series History

Manhattan and Fairfield will meet for the 89th time in series history with the Jaspers holding a 45-43 advantage all-time. The Jaspers snapped a six game losing streak to the Stags with their last win in the MAAC rivalry, a 53-51 victory on Jan. 8, 2012 at Draddy Gymnasium.

The Jaspers have dropped their last six games at Fairfield on the road, five of the losses were at Webster Bank Arena at Harbor Yard. Manhattan's last win at Fairfield was on Dec. 8, 2006 when the Jaspers knocked off the Stags 57-54 at the Webster Bank Arena at Harbor Yard. Antoine Pearson finished with a game-high 14 points leading Manhattan.

Stores Garners MAAC Rookie of the Week

First year guard RaShawn Stores was named MAAC Rookie of the Week for the second time this season on Feb. 4. Stores averaged 8.5 points over two contests. He had his top performance last Sunday as he scored 10 points to help lead Manhattan to a 57-49 victory over Saint Peter's. It was his fourth double-digit scoring performance. He shot 7-of-8 from the free-throw line in the victory over the Peacocks. Stores leads Manhattan with 55 assists this season. He has appeared in all 23 games and is in the top-15 of the MAAC averaging 2.4 assists per game.

Jaspers Get Defensive

Manhattan ranks among the top defensive teams in the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference (MAAC) this season. The Jaspers are second in the league lead yielding only 59.2 points per game against conference opponents. Manhattan has the second best field goal defense (39.4%) versus the MAAC.

The Jaspers' active defense revolves around the MAAC's reigning Defensive Player of the Year Rhamel Brown who leads the league for the third straight year in blocked shots (2.91). Brown is averaging 3.6 blocks in the Jaspers' 13 conference games, which includes three career-high seven block performances and one six-block effort.

In the last five MAAC games, the Jaspers have limited opponents to 54.2 points and a 36.9% field goal mark and 29.9% three-point field goal shooting percentage.

Freshman Phenom

Manhattan freshman forward Shane Richards has developed into one of the Jaspers' top offensive threats this season. Richards hit his stride after earning his first career start at Marist on Dec. 7. The 6'6" rookie from New York City knocked down his first collegiate field goal against the Red Foxes and has been a key part of the rotation ever since. Richards has eight double-digit scoring performances this season with all of them coming in the last 14 games. Richards is 8th in the MAAC shooting 38.1% beyond the arc. He is 3rd in the league averaging 2.7 threes in MAAC games.

Jaspers Challenged with Non-League Slate

Manhattan played arguably the most difficult non-conference schedule in the MAAC this season.

Coming off a 21-win campaign, returning all five starters and 81.2% of the scoring offense, Manhattan compiled an aggressive non-league slate that featured five teams that advanced to the 2012 postseason and won 20+ games last year (Louisville, Harvard, Dayton, LIU Brooklyn, Stony Brook). The Jaspers did not account for the 2011-12 MAAC scoring champion George Beamon to go down with an ankle injury two days before the opener at Louisville. Despite the setback, Manhattan has fared well as the team is finding its identity with a roster that features Preseason All-MAAC selections Rhamel Brown, Michael Alvarado and Emmy Andujar. The Jaspers are playing at a higher level since entering the MAAC schedule.

Category	MAAC	Non-Conf

Block Party

Jaspers' junior forward Rhamel Brown engraved his name in the Manhattan men's basketball record book. The 6'7" forward set the program's single season blocks record last season with 84 rejections. Brown's 2.47 blocks per game average ranked in the top-20 nationally in 2011-2012, leading the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference in this category for the second straight year.

In 2010-2011, Brown blocked 68 shots, which is the highest total ever by a Jasper freshman, leading the MAAC with 2.2 blocks per game.

Brown is second on the program's career blocks list and on pace to break the Manhattan record held by Steve Grant (220, 1974-78).

Career Blocks

1. Steve Grant (1974-78)	220
2. Rhamel Brown (2010-present)	219

Game 24 vs. Fairfield - February 12, 2013

2012-2013 Manhattan Men's Basketball Game Notes

Youth Movement

Injuries that have sidelined All-MAAC guards George Beamon for the season and Michael Alvarado for a three-game stretch provided the Jasper underclassmen opportunities that they have seized. Freshman forward Shane Richards has fully embraced his increased minutes as he is averaging 10.2 points with 35 three-point field goals in 24.9 minutes in 13 MAAC games. Richards scored a career-high 19 points at Rider on Jan. 27, and had two 18 point efforts burying six threes against South Carolina (Dec. 22) and Rider (Jan. 10).

Freshman point guard CJ Jones has delivered solid minutes in MAAC action. Jones scored eight points on 3-for-5 shooting at Iona on Jan. 6. Then on Jan. 10, he erupted for eight of his career-high 11 points, going along with four rebounds and three assists against Rider. He had his second double-digit scoring effort at Niagara (Jan. 19) finishing with 10 points on 4-for-6 shooting.

First year guard RaShawn Stores has also shined this season. Stores leads the Jaspers with 55 assists and is ranked in the top-15 of the MAAC with 2.4 assists per game. The sophomore from the Bronx had his top performance of the year leading Manhattan to a 20-point victory over Siena (Dec. 9). Stores exploded for career-highs with 12 points, six assists and shot a perfect 4-for-4 from beyond the arc.

Manhattan Inks Three to NLIs

Manhattan signed three highly-touted student-athletes during the NCAA Early Signing Period. Former five-star recruit and elite junior college prospect Chris Thomas (Denver, Colo./Chipola College), along with incoming freshmen, 6'10" center Carlton Allen (Ewing, N.J./Life Center Academy) and 6'0" guard Tyler Wilson (Bronx, N.Y./Cardinal Hayes) signed their National Letters of Intent to play for the Jaspers in 2013-14.

Thomas is 6'5" shooting guard from Colorado who is regarded as one of the purest scorers in the nation with high-major talent. He will come to Manhattan after one season playing at Chipola College for head coach Patrick Blake in Marianna, Fla. Chipola was the preseason fourth-ranked team in the country on the National Junior College Athletic Association (NJCAA) poll. Thomas was ranked as the #1 shooting guard and fifth overall prospect by Rivals.com and was an ESPN Super 60 recruit.

Allen comes to Manhattan from Life Center Academy in Burlington, N.J., where he plays for head coach Pervis Ellison, an 11-year NBA veteran. Allen is a 6'10", 240-pound student-athlete who provides a low post scoring threat for the Jaspers. He maneuvers well in the deep post and has a repertoire of inside moves, including the jump hook, according to ESPN.com. ESPN.com also ranks Allen as the 41st player at his position in 2013 class.

Wilson is a speedy guard who handles the ball well and is a legitimate scoring threat. He helped lead Cardinal Hayes to the Catholic High School Athletic Association (CHSAA) Class AA intersectional semifinals as a junior. He averaged approximately 12 points and seven assists per game last year, after playing two years at Rice High School.

Jaspers Named MAAC Rookies of the Week

First-year guard RaShawn Stores and freshman Shane Richards have each been named the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference Rookie of the Week this season.

Stores earned the award on Dec. 10 after the 5'11" point guard from the Bronx averaged 10.5 points shooting 61.5% (8-13) from the field in two games. He also added nine assists without having a turnover and buried 71.4% (5-7) of his three-point field goal attempts. Stores had his top performance of the week against Siena (Dec. 9) as he helped the Jaspers earn a 75-55 triumph. He set career highs with 12 points and six assists, while shooting a perfect 4-for-4 from three-point territory. Stores also grabbed five rebounds and swiped two steals in 24 minutes off the bench.

Richards was selected MAAC Rookie of the Week on Jan. 14. He averaged 14.5 points and buried eight three-pointers in two appearances against Rider (Jan. 10) and Marist (Jan. 13). The 6'5" New York City native exploded for a team-high 18 points before a national audience on ESPN3 versus Rider. He delivered another double-digit scoring performance finishing with 11 points to help lead Manhattan to a 65-53 victory over Marist.

MAAC Player of the Week Honors

Manhattan senior guard George Beamon was named MAAC Player of the Week on Nov. 26 after averaging 24.0 points and 5.5 rebounds in the two contests against Hofstra and Dayton. Beamon shot 64% (16-25) from the field and 81.3% (13-16) at the free-throw line, making a seamless transition back into the starting lineup after missing the Jaspers' first two contests with an injury.

Beamon exploded for 29 points and grabbed seven rebounds to lead Manhattan to a 67-56 victory over Hofstra. He shot 10-for-15 (66.7%) from the field and it was his 19th career 20+point performance.

The Roslyn, N.Y., native continued his superb play at Dayton as he delivered his 50th straight double-figure scoring effort. Beamon finished with 19 points, four rebounds, three assists and three steals. He was 6-for-10 (60%) from the field and 6-for-6 at the free-throw line.

Beamon Among Top Returning Scorers in Nation

Manhattan guard George Beamon entered his final season in Riverdale ranked among the top returning scorers in the country. Beamon, the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference's (MAAC) reigning scoring champion, has finished in the top-3 of the league's chart the last two years. The 6'4" native of Roslyn, N.Y., averaged a career-high 19.0 points per game last season, which has landed him 7th place among all returning players in NCAA Division I. Beamon's 2011-2012 scoring average is also the 6th highest among returning seniors for the 2012-2013 campaign.

The Masiello Project

Manhattan head coach Steve Masiello quickly restored the winning tradition in Riverdale with the greatest turn around in program history last season. The Jaspers' 21-13 overall record last season was the second best record by a Manhattan first-year head coach post-World War II era. It is only behind Fran Frascilla who finished the 1992-93 campaign 23-7 after inheriting a team coming off a 25-9 season under the direction of head coach Steve Lappas.

Manhattan Top of the Heap in Media Polls

After only one season with Steve Masiello at the helm, Manhattan was picked to finish the 2012-13 campaign atop the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference (MAAC), a position the program was familiar with during his time as an assistant coach (2001-2005). According to Yahoo! Sports and CBSSports.com, the Jaspers are the MAAC's preseason favorite. CBSSports.com also had Manhattan senior guard George Beamon as the projected conference Player of the Year.

Manhattan Second on MAAC Preseason Poll

Manhattan garnered its highest preseason ranking in seven years on the annual MAAC Preseason Coaches' Poll. The Jaspers were selected to finish as the league's runner up in 2012-13 as announced on ESPN3. Manhattan received two first place votes, and was eight points behind preseason favorite Loyola, the defending conference champion.

Preseason All-MAAC Honors

Manhattan had a league-best four players selected to the 2012-13 Preseason All-MAAC Team. Senior guard George Beamon was named to the First Team, while juniors Michael Alvarado, Rhamel Brown and sophomore Emmy Andujar received Third Team honors. These four Jaspers combined for 60% of the team's scoring last season and more than 50% of rebounding and assists for a squad that won 21-games.

Beamon is a two-time All-MAAC selection who was named to the First Team last year after leading the MAAC in scoring with 19.0 points per game. He posted double-figures in the scoring column in all 33 appearances in 2011-12 and led the team in points 26 times. Beamon ranked in the top-25 nationally for scoring average, and he finished in the top-10 of the MAAC for field goal percentage (48.5% - 10th), free-throw shooting (80.1% - 4th), steals (1.5 - 6th), three-point field goal percentage (42.7% - 4th) and three-point field goals (61 - 9th). Beamon scored 1,131 points in the previous two seasons.

Alvarado, a junior guard, was named to the All-MAAC Third Team in 2011-12. He started 26 of 30 appearances and tied for second on the team in scoring (8.5) and assists per game (3.2), which was also the sixth best average in the MAAC. Alvarado ranked among the leaders in the conference with a 76.6% free-throw percentage.

Brown is a 6'7" forward who earned the MAAC Defensive Player of the Year award last season. Brown led the MAAC with 2.5 blocks per game. He appeared in all 34 games for the Jaspers averaging 7.9 points and 4.9 rebounds in 19.1 minutes per game. He ranked second in the MAAC with a 60.1% field goal percentage.

Andujar was a MAAC All-Rookie Team selection in 2011-12. He started 32 of 33 appearances tying for second on the team in scoring with Alvarado (8.5 ppg). The 6'6" forward dished out a team-high 105 assists and led Manhattan with 189 rebounds.

Manhattan Staff

Manhattan second-year head coach Steve Masiello reloaded his coaching staff for the 2012-2013 season after former assistants Scott Padgett and Rashon Burno earned elevated coaching positions at other NCAA Division I institutions. During the offseason, Padgett was named associate head coach at Samford University in Birmingham, Ala., and Burno became an assistant coach under two-time national championship head coach Billy Donovan at the University of Florida.

The Jaspers current staff still features Associate Head Coach Matt Grady, who enters his second season in Riverdale. He brings a plethora of high level collegiate experience from his time at Louisville, Cincinnati, Murray State and Morehead State. Grady oversees the primary scouting and game planning responsibilities. "Matt is one of the best basketball minds out there," says Masiello.

Masiello reunited with assistant coach Rasheen Davis, who joined the staff in April. Davis came to Riverdale from Xavier, where he spent the previous two years as an assistant coach on Chris Mack's staff. Davis helped the Musketeers to back-to-back NCAA Tournament appearances, including a run to the Sweet Sixteen in 2011-12. He joined the Division I coaching ranks in 2007-08 as a program assistant at Louisville under head coach Rick Pitino and Masiello, who was an assistant on the staff.

Oliver Antigua is the third assistant on the Jaspers' staff. He joined the program in June after a successful career at St. Raymond High School in the Bronx, where he coached the Ravens to five Catholic High School Athletic Association (CHSAA) Class AA championships over his 13-year tenure. Antigua's brother Orlando is an assistant coach at Kentucky.

Jaspers in the Hall

Coinciding with the MAAC Championships moving to the MassMutual Center in Springfield, Mass., through 2014, a 600-square foot permanent display dedicated to the conference opened at the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame in October 2011. The MAAC Experience includes historical items and artifacts from the MAAC's rich 32-year history. In addition, all 10 MAAC schools have their own display within the exhibit. Manhattan's display features a commemorative No. 23 jersey worn by former Manhattan player, coach and athletic director Jack Powers '58, the former Executive Director of the NIT. Powers was Manhattan's first men's basketball inductee to the MAAC Honor Roll in March at the 2012 MAAC Championships.

The 2013 MAAC Honor Roll Class will feature Manhattan standout Keith Bullock '93 who will be inducted into The MAAC Experience exhibit this March during the MAAC Tournament. The 1990 MAAC Rookie of the Year, Bullock helped lead a renaissance of Manhattan basketball. He was a key starter on the 1992 team that snapped the Jaspers' 15-year postseason drought by earning a berth in the National Invitation Tournament (NIT).

As a senior in 1993, Bullock was named the MAAC Player of the Year and MAAC Tournament MVP, as Manhattan won its first MAAC title and reached the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 1958. A three-time First Team All-MAAC selection, Bullock finished his career with 1,992 points, 1,012 rebounds, ranking him second in program history on both lists.

#The6thBorough

#The6thBorough is the newly formed Official Manhattan Basketball Student Section in Draddy Gymnasium that made its debut at Manhattan Madness in October.

#The6thBorough was a concept developed by Student Government in conjunction with the Student Activities Office and the Athletic Department. #The6thBorough is located in the end zone closest to the visiting bench. Over 2,000 #The6thBorough t-shirts were distributed to students in an effort to organize involvement at basketball games and build a stronger home court advantage.

Manhattan All-Time Record

In its 107th season, the Manhattan College men's basketball program boasts a 1276-1146 (.527) overall record and 240-269 (.470) MAAC mark in 32 seasons as a conference member. The Jaspers' storied men's basketball team was established in 1904-05 and served a two-year hiatus due to World War II (1943-44 & 1944-45).

Jaspers at Draddy Gymnasium

Draddy Gymnasium has played host to several Jasper victories and memorable moments since it opened in 1978. Manhattan holds a 245-177 (.579) all-time record at Draddy Gymnasium.

What's a Jasper?

The unique nickname of Manhattan College's athletic teams, the Jaspers, comes from one of the College's most memorable figures, Brother Jasper of Mary, F.S.C., who served at the College in the late 19th century.

One of the greatest achievements of Brother Jasper was that he brought the then little-known sport of baseball to Manhattan College and became the team's first coach. Since Brother Jasper was also the Prefect of Discipline, he supervised the student fans at Manhattan College baseball games while also directing the team itself.

During one particularly warm and humid day when Manhattan College was playing a semi-pro baseball team called the Metropolitan, Brother Jasper noticed the Manhattan students were becoming restless and edgy as Manhattan came to bat in the seventh inning of a close game. To relieve the tension, Brother Jasper called time-out and told the students to stand up and stretch for a few minutes until the game resumed.

Since the College annually played the New York Giants in the late 1880's and into the 1890's at the old Polo Grounds, the Manhattan College practice of the "seventh inning stretch" spread into the major leagues, where it has now become a time-honored custom practiced by millions of fans annually.

2012-2013 Manhattan Men's Basketball Game Notes

Head Coach Steve Masiello Second Season (29-28)

Manhattan College head coach Steve Masiello has quickly restored the winning tradition to the storied men's basketball program in Riverdale, laying the foundation for the Jaspers' return to prominence. Masiello has rejuvenated the Jaspers with strong national recruiting that has transformed Manhattan into a top contender in the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference for years to come.

Long-time ESPN college basketball commentator Dick Vitale has even noted, "Remember this name, Steve Masiello. A young, rising coach doing a great job at Manhattan."

Masiello was named Manhattan's 23rd head coach in program history on April 11, 2011. He arrived back in his native New York after spending six years in the Big East as an assistant at Louisville under head coach Rick Pitino.

In his first season at Manhattan, the Jaspers enjoyed the biggest turnaround in the nation, posting 21 victories in 2011-2012, a 15-win improvement from the previous season. It went down as the largest turnaround in program history, and he posted the second most wins by a Manhattan first-year head coach, trailing only Fran Fraschilla's 23 victories in 1992-93.

Masiello garnered Co-Coach of the Year honors by the Metropolitan Writer's Association in 2011-12 as he led Manhattan to its first postseason appearance since 2006. The Jaspers advanced to the Second Round of the CollegeInsider.com Tournament (CIT). Masiello mentored three All-MAAC selections in 2011-2012, including First Team honoree and the league's scoring champion George Beamon.

The Jaspers have also excelled in the classroom under Masiello. Three players earned both MAAC All-Academic distinction and the prestigious Honors Court recognition by the National Association of Basketball Coaches (NABC) in 2012. It marked the most student-athlete honorees on both award lists out of the 10 MAAC institutions.

Over his six-year tenure at Louisville, Masiello helped lead the Cards to a 148-61 (.708) overall record, six straight 20-win seasons and four NCAA Tournament appearances. Louisville advanced to the Elite Eight twice (2008 & 2009) during that time. Masiello played a vital role in building Louisville's 2009 Big East Championship team, which won 31 games, including a program record 16 in conference, and entered the NCAA Tournament as the No. 1 overall seed. One of the nation's most renowned recruiters, Masiello effectively directed the Cards' recruiting efforts by signing four Top-20 recruiting classes, which included four McDonald's All-Americans over his time in Louisville. The Cards' 2008 recruiting class garnered a No. 4 national ranking, featuring 2008 USA Today High School National Player of the Year and future NBA player Samardo Samuels.

Masiello was named one of the nation's Top 25 collegiate assistant coaches according to FoxSports.com (2010) & Rivals.com (2007). He managed the Cards' game preparation and scouting responsibilities for his last three years with the program as Louisville amassed a 76-29 (.724) overall record, including a 39-15 (.722) mark in the Big East during this stretch.

Masiello is back in Riverdale for his second coaching tenure at Manhattan. He previously helped lead the Jaspers to three postseason appearances in four years (2001-2005) as an assistant, which included two trips to the NCAA Tournament (2003 & 2004) and one to the NIT (2002). Under his tutelage, the Jaspers posted an 83-36 (.697) overall record and won the 2003 & 2004 Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference Championships. Masiello was a key contributor on the Jaspers' coaching staff which helped lead Manhattan to its third NCAA Tournament victory in program history in 2004, defeating Florida in the First Round. Prior to Manhattan, Masiello served as the administrative assistant at Tulane under head coach Shawn Finney for one year (2000-01).

A 2000 graduate of the University of Kentucky with a degree in communications, Masiello was a four-year member of the Wildcats' basketball team, playing under head coaches Rick Pitino (1996-97) and Tubby Smith (1997-2000). During his playing career, Kentucky went to the Final Four twice (1997 & 1998), advancing to the National Championship game both times and winning the title in 1998. Masiello was named the Wildcats' co-captain his senior year. Masiello hails from White Plains, N.Y., and attended Archbishop Stepinac High School. He completed his final two years at the Harvey School in Katonah, N.Y., where he helped the basketball program win the New England Prep School Athletic Association Championship. Masiello also served as a ball boy for the New York Knicks during his youth.
