News and Notes

Manhattan hosts 'White Out Draddy' Night for the Jaspers' national broadcast against Iona on ESPNU. ESPN is sending the hosts of its popular weeknight UNITE show to Riverdale to announce the 81st meeting of the local MAAC rivalry between Manhattan and Iona. Danny Kanell (@Dkanell13), Reese Waters (@ReeseWaters) and Marianela Pereyra (@MARIANELATV) take their late night show on the road joining play-by-play announcer Doug Sherman as part of ESPN's Rivalry Week presented by Wendy's.

The Jaspers are celebrating the 75th Anniversary of March Madness as part of the season long celebration initiated by the NCAA. The NCAA has contributed nearly 200 white t-shirts to contribute to the 'White Out Draddy' initiative.

Prior to the contest, Manhattan will honor junior forward Rhamel Brown, who set the program's career blocks record on Tuesday at Fairfield. Brown surpassed former Jasper Steve Grant (1974-78) as he recorded his 222nd career block, breaking a record that stood for 35-years. Grant will participate in the pregame ceremony honoring Brown for the accomplishment.

The Jaspers are the hottest team in the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference. Manhattan enters the contest with Iona on a season-best three-game win streak and winners of four of the last five games. Three of the Jaspers last four wins have come by double-digits. Brown has led the team averaging 12.4 points and 7.0 rebounds during this superb five-game stretch. Sophomore forward Donovan Kates led the Jaspers in scoring their last two games, posting a game-high 17 points in a 22-point victory at Fairfield on Tuesday. He is averaging 10.0 points and has shot 22-25 (88.0%) at the free-throw line in the last five games.

Scouting Report Manhattan

Manhattan has been the hottest team in the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference. The Jaspers enter Friday's showdown with Iona riding a three-game win streak, and have won four of the last five contests. Manhattan owns a 5-3 record at Draddy Gymnasium, which includes a 67-54 victory over Canisius its last time in Riverdale on Feb. 7.

Sophomore forward Donovan Kates has emerged as one of the Jaspers' top scoring threats. Kates had 15 of his 17 points in the second half and shot 7-for-7 from the free-throw line. The Hopkinsville, Ky., native leads the team averaging 13.7 points shooting 52.6% from the field during the Jaspers three game win streak.

Jaspers Peaking; Hottest Team in MAAC

Manhattan has become the hottest team in the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference, after winning their last three contests. The Jaspers have posted wins in four of their last five contests, including back-to-back double-digit victories most recently coming over Canisius (Feb. 7) and Fairfield (Feb. 12). Manhattan is 4-2 in home MAAC games as the Jaspers have won three of the last four conference home games.

The Jaspers have averaged a 10.2-point margin of victory in their last five games. Manhattan has also shot a hot 46.0% from the field.

Stores Garner Consecutive MAAC Rookie of the Week

First year guard RaShawn Stores earned the MAAC Rookie of the Week the last two weeks. Stores averaged 8.5 points over two contests to take the award on Feb. 4. He had his top performance that week as he scored 10 points to help lead Manhattan to a 57-49 victory over Saint Peter's on Feb. 3. Then on Feb. 11, Stores earned the award for the third time this season after scoring 13 points in a 67-54 victory over Canisius at Draddy Gymnasium.

Stores is tied with sophomore forward Emmy Andujar for a team leading 56 assists. They are each averaging 2.3 assists per game this season.

Defensive Intensity

Manhattan is the top defensive team in the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference (MAAC) this season. The Jaspers lead the league yielding only 57.8 points per game against conference opponents. Manhattan has the best field goal defense (38.1%) versus the MAAC.

The Jaspers' active defense revolves around the MAAC's reigning Defensive Player of the Year Rhamel Brown who leads the league for the third straight year in blocked shots (2.91). Brown is averaging 3.6 blocks in the Jaspers' 14 conference games, which includes three career-high seven block performances and one six-block effort.

In the last five MAAC games, the Jaspers have limited opponents to 52.0 points and a 34.0% field goal mark and 28.3% three-point field goal shooting percentage.

Jaspers Challenged with Non-League Slate

Manhattan played arguably the most difficult non-conference schedule in the MAAC this season. Coming off a 21-win campaign, returning all five starters and 81.2% of the scoring offense, Manhattan compiled an aggressive non-league slate that featured five teams that advanced to the 2012 postseason and won 20+ games last year (Louisville, Harvard, Dayton, LIU Brooklyn, Stony Brook). The Jaspers did not account for the 2011-12 MAAC scoring champion George Beamon to go down with an ankle injury two days before the opener at Louisville. Despite the setback, Manhattan has fared well as the team is finding its identity with a roster that features Preseason All-MAAC selections Rhamel Brown, Michael Alvarado and Emmy Andujar. The Jaspers are playing at a higher level since entering the MAAC schedule.

Blocks King

Jaspers' junior forward Rhamel Brown engraved his name in the Manhattan men's basketball record book on Feb. 12, 2013 at Fairfield when he became the program's career blocks leader. Brown surpassed Steve Grant (220, 1974-78) who held the record for 35 years.

The 6'7" forward set the program's single season blocks record last year with 84 rejections. Brown's 2.47 blocks per game average ranked in the top-20 nationally in 2011-2012, leading the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference in this category for the second straight year.

In 2010-2011, Brown blocked 68 shots, which is the highest total ever by a Jasper freshman, leading the MAAC with 2.2 blocks per game.

Youth Movement

Injuries that have sidelined All-MAAC guards George Beamon for the season and Michael Alvarado for a three-game stretch provided the Jasper underclassmen opportunities that they have seized. Freshman forward Shane Richards has fully embraced his increased minutes as he is averaging 9.8 points with 36 three-point field goals in 24.6 minutes in 14 MAAC games. Richards scored a career-high 19 points at Rider on Jan. 27, and had two 18 point efforts, burying six threes against South Carolina (Dec. 22) and Rider (Jan. 10).

Freshman point guard CJ Jones has delivered solid minutes in MAAC action. Jones scored eight points on 3-for-5 shooting at Iona on Jan. 6. Then on Jan. 10, he erupted for eight of his career-high 11 points, going along with four rebounds and three assists against Rider. He had his second double-digit scoring effort at Niagara (Jan. 19) finishing with 10 points on 4-for-6 shooting.

First year guard RaShawn Stores has also shined this season. Stores leads the Jaspers with 56 assists. The sophomore from the Bronx had his top performance of the year leading Manhattan to a 20-point victory over Siena (Dec. 9). Stores exploded for a game-high 12 points and career-high six assists on a perfect 4-for-4 shooting from beyond the arc.

Manhattan Inks Three to NLI's

Manhattan signed three highly-touted student-athletes during the NCAA Early Signing Period. Former five-star recruit and elite junior college prospect Chris Thomas (Denver, Colo./Chipola College), along with incoming freshmen, 6'10" center Carlton Allen (Ewing, N.J./Life Center Academy) and 6'0" guard Tyler Wilson (Bronx, N.Y./Cardinal Hayes) signed their National Letters of Intent to play for the Jaspers in 2013-14.

Thomas is 6'5" shooting guard from Colorado who is regarded as one of the purest scorers in the nation with high-major talent. He will come to Manhattan after one season playing at Chipola College for head coach Patrick Blake in Marianna, Fla. Chipola was the preseason fourth-ranked team in the country on the National Junior College Athletic Association (NJCAA) poll. Thomas was ranked as the #1 shooting guard and fifth overall prospect by Rivals.com and was an ESPN Super 60 recruit.

Allen comes to Manhattan from Life Center Academy in Burlington, N.J., where he plays for head coach Pervis Ellison, an 11-year NBA veteran. Allen is a 6'10", 240-pound student-athlete who provides a low post scoring threat for the Jaspers. He maneuvers well in the deep post and has a repertoire of inside moves, including the jump hook, according to ESPN.com. ESPN.com also ranks Allen as the 41st player at his position in 2013 class.

Wilson is a speedy guard who handles the ball well and is a legitimate scoring threat. He helped lead Cardinal Hayes to the Catholic High School Athletic Association (CHSAA) Class AA intersectional semifinals as a junior. He averaged approximately 12 points and seven assists per game last year, after playing two years at Rice High School.

Jaspers Named MAAC Rookies of the Week

First-year guard RaShawn Stores and freshman Shane Richards have each been named the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference Rookie of the Week this season.

Stores earned his first of three awards on Dec. 10 after the 5'11" point guard from the Bronx averaged 10.5 points shooting 61.5% (8-13) from the field in two games. He also added nine assists without having a turnover and buried 71.4% (5-7) of his three-point field goal attempts. Stores had his top performance of the week against Siena (Dec. 9) as he helped the Jaspers earn a 75-55 triumph. He set career highs with 12 points and six assists, while shooting a perfect 4-for-4 from three-point territory. Stores also grabbed five rebounds and swiped two steals in 24 minutes off the bench.

Richards was selected MAAC Rookie of the Week on Jan. 14. He averaged 14.5 points and buried eight three-pointers in two appearances against Rider (Jan. 10) and Marist (Jan. 13). The 6'5" New York City native exploded for a team-high 18 points before a national audience on ESPN3 versus Rider. He delivered another double-digit scoring performance finishing with 11 points to help lead Manhattan to a 65-53 victory over Marist.

MAAC Player of the Week Honors

Manhattan senior guard George Beamon was named MAAC Player of the Week on Nov. 26 after averaging 24.0 points and 5.5 rebounds in the two contests against Hofstra and Dayton. Beamon shot 64% (16-25) from the field and 81.3% (13-16) at the free-throw line, making a seamless transition back into the starting lineup after missing the Jaspers' first two contests with an injury.

Beamon exploded for 29 points and grabbed seven rebounds to lead Manhattan to a 67-56 victory over Hofstra. He shot 10-for-15 (66.7%) from the field and it was his 19th career 20+point performance.

The Roslyn, N.Y., native continued his superb play at Dayton as he delivered his 50th straight double-figure scoring effort. Beamon finished with 19 points, four rebounds, three assists and three steals. He was 6-for-10 (60%) from the field and 6-for-6 at the free-throw line.

Beamon Among Top Returning Scorers in Nation

Manhattan guard George Beamon entered his final season in Riverdale ranked among the top returning scorers in the country. Beamon, the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference's (MAAC) reigning scoring champion, has finished in the top-3 of the league's chart the last two years. The 6'4" native of Roslyn, N.Y., averaged a career-high 19.0 points per game last season, which has landed him 7th place among all returning players in NCAA Division I. Beamon's 2011-2012 scoring average is also the 6th highest among returning seniors for the 2012-2013 campaign.

Manhattan head coach Steve Masiello quickly restored the winning tradition in Riverdale with the greatest turn around in program history last season. The Jaspers' 21-13 overall record last season was the second best record by a Manhattan first-year head coach post-World War II era. It is only behind Fran Frascilla who finished the 1992-93 campaign 23-7 after inheriting a team coming off a 25-9 season under the direction of head coach Steve Lappas.

Manhattan Top of the Heap in Media Polls

After only one season with Steve Masiello at the helm, Manhattan was picked to finish the 2012-13 campaign atop the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference (MAAC), a position the program was familiar with during his time as an assistant coach (2001-2005). According to Yahoo! Sports and CBSSports.com, the Jaspers are the MAAC's preseason favorite. CBSSports.com also had Manhattan senior guard George Beamon as the projected conference Player of the Year.

The Jaspers were selected to finish as the league's runner up in 2012-13 as announced on ESPN3. Manhattan received two first place votes, and was eight points behind preseason favorite Loyola, the defending conference champion.

These four Jaspers combined for 60% of the team's scoring last season and more than 50% of rebounding and assists for a squad that won 21-games.

Beamon is a two-time All-MAAC selection who was named to the First Team last year after leading the MAAC in scoring with 19.0 points per game. He posted double-figures in the scoring column in all 33 appearances in 2011-12 and led the team in points 26 times. ## Manhattan Staff

Manhattan second-year head coach Steve Masiello reloaded his coaching staff for the 2012-2013 season after former assistants Scott Padgett and Rashon Burno earned elevated coaching positions at other NCAA Division I institutions. During the offseason, Padgett was named associate head coach at Samford University in Birmingham, Ala., and Burno became an assistant coach under two-time national championship head coach Billy Donovan at the University of Florida.

The Jaspers current staff still features Associate Head Coach Matt Grady, who enters his second season in Riverdale. He brings a plethora of high level collegiate experience from his time at Louisville, Cincinnati, Murray State and Morehead State. Grady oversees the primary scouting and game planning responsibilities. "Matt is one of the best basketball minds out there," says Masiello.

Masiello reunited with assistant coach Rasheen Davis, who joined the staff in April. Davis came to Riverdale from Xavier, where he spent the previous two years as an assistant coach on Chris Mack's staff. Davis helped the Musketeers to back-to-back NCAA Tournament appearances, including a run to the Sweet Sixteen in 2011-12. He joined the Division I coaching ranks in 2007-08 as a program assistant at Louisville under head coach Rick Pitino and Masiello, who was an assistant on the staff.

Oliver Antigua is the third assistant on the Jaspers' staff. He joined the program in June after a successful career at St. Raymond High School in the Bronx, where he coached the Ravens to five Catholic High School Athletic Association (CHSAA) Class AA championships over his 13-year tenure. Antigua's brother Orlando is an assistant coach at Kentucky.

Jaspers in the Hall

Coinciding with the MAAC Championships moving to the MassMutual Center in Springfield, Mass., through 2014, a 600-square foot permanent display dedicated to the conference opened at the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame in October 2011. The MAAC Experience includes historical items and artifacts from the MAAC's rich 32-year history. In addition, all 10 MAAC schools have their own display within the exhibit. Manhattan's display features a commemorative No. 23 jersey worn by former Manhattan player, coach and athletic director Jack Powers '58, the former Executive Director of the NIT. Powers was Manhattan's first men's basketball inductee to the MAAC Honor Roll in March at the 2012 MAAC Championships.

The 2013 MAAC Honor Roll Class will feature Manhattan standout Keith Bullock '93 who will be inducted into The MAAC Experience exhibit this March during the MAAC Tournament. The 1990 MAAC Rookie of the Year, Bullock helped lead a renaissance of Manhattan basketball. He was a key starter on the 1992 team that snapped the Jaspers' 15-year postseason drought by earning a berth in the National Invitation Tournament (NIT).

As a senior in 1993, Bullock was named the MAAC Player of the Year and MAAC Tournament MVP, as Manhattan won its first MAAC title and reached the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 1958. A three-time First Team All-MAAC selection, Bullock finished his career with 1,992 points, 1,012 rebounds, ranking him second in program history on both lists.

#The6thBorough

#The6thBorough is the newly formed Official Manhattan Basketball Student Section in Draddy Gymnasium that made its debut at Manhattan Madness in October.

#The6thBorough was a concept developed by Student Government in conjunction with the Student Activities Office and the Athletic Department. #The6thBorough is located in the end zone closest to the visiting bench. Over 2,000 #The6thBorough t-shirts were distributed to students in an effort to organize involvement at basketball games and build a stronger home court advantage.

Manhattan All-Time Record

In its 107th season, the Manhattan College men's basketball program boasts a 1277-1146 (.527) overall record and 241-269 (.470) MAAC mark in 32 seasons as a conference member. The Jaspers' storied men's basketball team was established in 1904-05 and served a two-year hiatus due to World War II (1943-44 & 1944-45).

Jaspers at Draddy Gymnasium

Draddy Gymnasium has played host to several Jasper victories and memorable moments since it opened in 1978. Manhattan holds a 245-177 (.579) all-time record at Draddy Gymnasium.

What's a Jasper?

The unique nickname of Manhattan College's athletic teams, the Jaspers, comes from one of the College's most memorable figures, Brother Jasper of Mary, F.S.C., who served at the College in the late 19th century.

One of the greatest achievements of Brother Jasper was that he brought the then little-known sport of baseball to Manhattan College and became the team's first coach. Since Brother Jasper was also the Prefect of Discipline, he supervised the student fans at Manhattan College baseball games while also directing the team itself.

During one particularly warm and humid day when Manhattan College was playing a semi-pro baseball team called the Metropolitan, Brother Jasper noticed the Manhattan students were becoming restless and edgy as Manhattan came to bat in the seventh inning of a close game. To relieve the tension, Brother Jasper called time-out and told the students to stand up and stretch for a few minutes until the game resumed.

Since the College annually played the New York Giants in the late 1880's and into the 1890's at the old Polo Grounds, the Manhattan College practice of the "seventh inning stretch" spread into the major leagues, where it has now become a time-honored custom practiced by millions of fans annually.

Head Coach Steve Masiello Second Season (30-28)

Manhattan College head coach Steve Masiello has quickly restored the winning tradition to the storied men's basketball program in Riverdale, laying the foundation for the Jaspers' return to prominence. Masiello has rejuvenated the Jaspers with strong national recruiting that has transformed Manhattan into a top contender in the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference for years to come.

Long-time ESPN college basketball commentator Dick Vitale has even noted, "Remember this name, Steve Masiello. A young, rising coach doing a great job at Manhattan."

Masiello was named Manhattan's 23rd head coach in program history on April 11, 2011. He arrived back in his native New York after spending six years in the Big East as an assistant at Louisville under head coach Rick Pitino.

In his first season at Manhattan, the Jaspers enjoyed the biggest turnaround in the nation, posting 21 victories in 2011-2012, a 15-win improvement from the previous season. It went down as the largest turnaround in program history, and he posted the second most wins by a Manhattan first-year head coach, trailing only Fran Fraschilla's 23 victories in 1992-93.

Masiello garnered Co-Coach of the Year honors by the Metropolitan Writer's Association in 2011-12 as he led Manhattan to its first postseason appearance since 2006. The Jaspers advanced to the Second Round of the CollegeInsider.com Tournament (CIT). Masiello mentored three All-MAAC selections in 2011-2012, including First Team honoree and the league's scoring champion George Beamon.

The Jaspers have also excelled in the classroom under Masiello. Three players earned both MAAC All-Academic distinction and the prestigious Honors Court recognition by the National Association of Basketball Coaches (NABC) in 2012. It marked the most student-athlete honorees on both award lists out of the 10 MAAC institutions.

Over his six-year tenure at Louisville, Masiello helped lead the Cards to a 148-61 (.708) overall record, six straight 20-win seasons and four NCAA Tournament appearances. Louisville advanced to the Elite Eight twice (2008 & 2009) during that time. Masiello played a vital role in building Louisville's 2009 Big East Championship team, which won 31 games, including a program record 16 in conference, and entered the NCAA Tournament as the No. 1 overall seed. One of the nation's most renowned recruiters, Masiello effectively directed the Cards' recruiting efforts by signing four Top-20 recruiting classes, which included four McDonald's All-Americans over his time in Louisville. The Cards' 2008 recruiting class garnered a No. 4 national ranking, featuring 2008 USA Today High School National Player of the Year and future NBA player Samardo Samuels.

Masiello was named one of the nation's Top 25 collegiate assistant coaches according to FoxSports.com (2010) & Rivals.com (2007). He managed the Cards' game preparation and scouting responsibilities for his last three years with the program as Louisville amassed a 76-29 (.724) overall record, including a 39-15 (.722) mark in the Big East during this stretch.

Masiello is back in Riverdale for his second coaching tenure at Manhattan. He previously helped lead the Jaspers to three postseason appearances in four years (2001-2005) as an assistant, which included two trips to the NCAA Tournament (2003 & 2004) and one to the NIT (2002). Under his tutelage, the Jaspers posted an 83-36 (.697) overall record and won the 2003 & 2004 Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference Championships. Masiello was a key contributor on the Jaspers' coaching staff which helped lead Manhattan to its third NCAA Tournament victory in program history in 2004, defeating Florida in the First Round. Prior to Manhattan, Masiello served as the administrative assistant at Tulane under head coach Shawn Finney for one year (2000-01).

A 2000 graduate of the University of Kentucky with a degree in communications, Masiello was a four-year member of the Wildcats' basketball team, playing under head coaches Rick Pitino (1996-97) and Tubby Smith (1997-2000). During his playing career, Kentucky went to the Final Four twice (1997 & 1998), advancing to the National Championship game both times and winning the title in 1998. Masiello was named the Wildcats' co-captain his senior year. Masiello hails from White Plains, N.Y., and attended Archbishop Stepinac High School. He completed his final two years at the Harvey School in Katonah, N.Y., where he helped the basketball program win the New England Prep School Athletic Association Championship. Masiello also served as a ball boy for the New York Knicks during his youth.
