Manhattan dropped its second straight MAAC game Thursday without injured All-MAAC guards George Beamon (16.8 ppg) and Michael Alvarado (8.4 ppg). The Jaspers fell 69-60 to Rider at Draddy Gymnasium. Freshman forward Shane Richards led Manhattan matching a career-high 18 points, while junior forward Rhamel Brown posted his ninth career-double-double (15 points, 11 rebounds) in 21 minutes of action. Jaspers' freshman guard CJ Jones also had a career night scoring 11 points, four rebounds and three assists.

Beamon, a Preseason All-MAAC First Team selection, returned as the seventh leading scorer in the nation after posting a league-best 19.0 points per game in 2011-12. He has missed 11 games with an ankle injury. Alvarado joined Beamon on the injured reserve list Jan. 1 in the contest with Stony Brook. The two-time All-MAAC point guard also suffered an ankle injury in the first half of the game. Alvarado has started 58 of 68 contests for the Jaspers over his career averaging nearly 10 points and three assists per game. He was named to the watch list for The Naismith Basketball Hall of Fame's 2013 Bob Cousy Collegiate Point Guard of the Year Award.

The Jaspers will play their ninth straight game in the metropolitan area, a local stretch that began on Dec. 9 with a 75-55 victory over Siena. Manhattan's contest with Marist marks the seventh game of the last nine that the Jaspers will play in within New York City's five boroughs.

Prior to the contest with Marist, Manhattan will hold an Alumni Game welcoming back over 30 Jasper Greats from the last four decades, including 2013 MAAC Honor Roll inductee Keith Bullock (1989-93). Bullock scored 1,992 points and grabbed 1,012 rebounds in his career. He was the MVP of the Jaspers' 1993 MAAC Championship Team that will be honored at halftime of the Marist game as it marks the 20th Anniversary of the program's first league title.

2012-2013 Manhattan Men's Basketball Game Notes

Scouting Report Manhattan

The Jaspers have split their last four MAAC games with their most recent victory coming on Jan. 4 at Saint Peter's (55-53). Manhattan dropped a 69-60 decision to Rider on Thursday playing without injured All-MAAC guards George Beamon (16.8 ppg) and Michael Alvarado (8.4 ppg).

Manhattan plays the second contest of a pair of home games when it hosts Marist. The Jaspers have won two of their four contests at Draddy Gymnasium this season and have averaged 71.0 points shooting 45.6% from the field in its wins over Hofstra (Nov. 21) and Siena (Dec. 9). In both wins Manhattan enjoyed double-digit margins of victory.

Junior Rhamel Brown delivered his ninth career double-double Thursday against the Broncos going for 15 points and 11 rebounds in only 21 minutes of action due to foul trouble. The 6'7" forward from Brooklyn has been a force for the Jaspers posting double-digits in the scoring column in each of the last six games. During this stretch, Brown has averaged team-highs with 15.3 points, 8.7 rebounds, 3.3 blocks and 1.7 steals per contest.

Brown is the MAAC leader in field goal percentage (55.7%) and blocked shots (2.4 bpg). He also ranks fourth in the conference with a 7.1 rebounding average.

Freshmen Shane Richards and CJ Jones have stepped up for the Jaspers earning extra minutes in the absence of Beamon and Alvarado. Richards is coming off a team-high 18 point effort against Rider, which also matched his career-high in scoring. The 6'5" forward from New York City knocked down six three-pointers against the Broncos. Richards has buried 21 of his team-high 26 threes in the last six games and has averaged 11.8 points during this stretch.

Jones delivered back-to-back solid performances. On Sunday, the point guard from Chicago scored eight points on 3-for-5 shooting at Iona. Then on Thursday, Jones set career-highs with 11 points, four rebounds and three assists in 25 minutes off the bench. He averaged 9.5 points and shot 46.7% from the field during this two game stretch.

Manhattan has averaged 63.6 points per game shooting 41.5% in league contests. Brown (13.8 ppg) and Richards (11.2 ppg) are averaging double-figures in scoring against MAAC opponents.

The Red Foxes are on a six game losing streak and are coming off an 86-82 loss at home to Iona on Thursday. Marist visits Draddy Gymnasium with a 1-6 road record. The Red Foxes are 2-8 this season when playing away from McCann Arena.

Marist is led by sophomore guard Chavaughn Lewis and senior guard Devin Price who are each ranked in the top-10 of the MAAC in scoring. Price stands fourth in the conference for three-point field goals made and Lewis is third with 1.7 steals per game.

The Red Foxes are averaging 63.8 points, but have yielded 72.0 per contest. Junior Adam Kemp, a 6'10", 230-pound forward from Sherrill, N.Y., has also started all 16 games for Marist. Kemp is third in the MAAC in rebounding (7.4 rpg) and second in blocks per game (1.6).

Poughkeepsie, N.Y. - McCann Arena

Marist snapped the Jaspers three-game win streak in the head-to-head series with a victory at McCann Arena in the clubs' first MAAC contest this season. The Jaspers furious charge in the last 11 minutes came up short as Marist held on 62-58. Manhattan junior point guard Michael Alvarado scored 14 of his game-high 19 points in the second half.

The Red Foxes were led by sophomore guard Chavaughn Lewis who scored 14 of his team-high 17 points in the first half. Lewis knocked down his first six shot attempts, including two three-pointers.

Alvarado ignited a 26-8 run scoring all 14 of his second half points over the next eight minutes helping the Jaspers take their first lead of the ballgame.

Jay Bowie answered with a three-pointer to tie the game 58-all, and then Lewis regained the lead Marist would not relinquish by knocking down a free-throw with 1:24 remaining.

Jaspers Challenged with Non-League Slate

Manhattan played arguably the most difficult non-conference schedule in the MAAC this season. Coming off a 21-win campaign, returning all five starters and 81.2% of the scoring offense, Manhattan compiled an aggressive non-league slate that featured five teams that advanced to the 2012 postseason and won 20+ games last year (Louisville, Harvard, Dayton, LIU Brooklyn, Stony Brook). The Jaspers did not account for the 2011-12 MAAC scoring champion George Beamon to go down with an ankle injury two days before the opener at Louisville. Despite the setback, Manhattan has fared well as the team is gradually finding its identity with a roster that features Preseason All-MAAC selections Rhamel Brown, Michael Alvarado and Emmy Andujar. The Jaspers are playing at a higher level since entering the MAAC schedule winning two of their last four league games.

Youth Movement

Injuries that sidelined All-MAAC guards George Beamon and Michael Alvarado have provided the Jasper underclassmen opportunities that they have seized as of late. Freshman forward Shane Richards has fully embraced his increased minutes as he is averaging 11.8 points with 21 three-point field goals in 25.8 minutes off the bench in the last six games. Richards scored a career-high 18 points on six threes on two occasions this season at Barclays Center against South Carolina (Dec. 22) and against Rider (Jan. 10) at Draddy Gymnasium.

Freshman point guard CJ Jones is coming off his top three games of the season. Jones complemented Richards who had a game-high 16 points in the 55-53 victory at Saint Peter's on Friday by sinking back-to-back clutch layups in the last five minutes. Defensively, he smothered the Peacocks guards forcing multiple turnovers in the backcourt. Jones scored eight points on 3-for-5 shooting at Iona on Sunday. Then on Thursday, he erupted for eight of his career-high 11 points, going along with four rebounds and three assists against Rider.

First year guard RaShawn Stores has also shined this season. Stores leads the Jaspers with 40 assists and is ranked in the top-15 of the MAAC with 2.7 assists per game. The sophomore from the Bronx had his top performance of the year leading Manhattan to a 20-point victory over Siena (Dec. 9). Stores exploded for career-highs with 12 points, six assists and shot a perfect 4-for-4 from beyond the arc.

Block Party

Jaspers' junior forward Rhamel Brown engraved his name in the Manhattan men's basketball record book. The 6'7" forward set the program's single season blocks record last season with 84 rejections. Brown's 2.47 blocks per game average ranked in the top-20 nationally in 2011-12, leading the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference in this category for the second straight year.

In 2010-2011, Brown blocked 68 shots, which is the highest total ever by a Jasper freshman, leading the MAAC with 2.2 blocks per game. Brown is second on the program's career blocks list and on pace to break the Manhattan record held by Steve Grant (220, 1974-78).

Manhattan Inks Three to NLI's

Manhattan signed three highly-touted student-athletes during the NCAA Early Signing Period. Former five-star recruit and elite junior college prospect Chris Thomas (Denver, Colo./Chipola College), along with incoming freshmen, 6'10" center Carlton Allen (Ewing, N.J./Life Center Academy) and 6'0" guard Tyler Wilson (Bronx, N.Y./Cardinal Hayes) signed their National Letters of Intent to play for the Jaspers in 2013-14.

Thomas is 6'5" shooting guard from Colorado who is regarded as one of the purest scorers in the nation with high-major talent. He will come to Manhattan after one season playing at Chipola College for head coach Patrick Blake in Marianna, Fla. Chipola was the preseason fourth-ranked team in the country on the National Junior College Athletic Association (NJCAA) poll. Thomas was ranked as the #1 shooting guard and fifth overall prospect by Rivals.com and was an ESPN Super 60 recruit.

Allen comes to Manhattan from Life Center Academy in Burlington, N.J., where he plays for head coach Pervis Ellison, an 11-year NBA veteran. Allen is a 6'10", 240-pound student-athlete who provides a low post scoring threat for the Jaspers. He maneuvers well in the deep post and has a repertoire of inside moves, including the jump hook, according to ESPN.com. ESPN.com also ranks Allen as the 41st player at his position in 2013 class.

Wilson is a speedy guard who handles the ball well and is a legitimate scoring threat. He helped lead Cardinal Hayes to the Catholic High School Athletic Association (CHSAA) Class AA intersectional semifinals as a junior. He averaged approximately 12 points and seven assists per game last year, after playing two years at Rice High School.

Climbing Scoring Chart

Jaspers' senior guard George Beamon has quickly climbed the program's career scoring chart in the last three seasons. Despite seeing limited action (6.9 mpg) and scoring only 80 points as a freshman, Beamon is within striking distance of advancing into the top-5 all-time.

Career Points

1. Luis Flores (2001-04)	2,046
2. Keith Bullock (1989-93)	1,992
3. Tim Cain (1981-85)	1,872

Manhattan Top of the Heap in Media Polls

After only one season with Steve Masiello at the helm, Manhattan was picked to finish the 2012-13 campaign atop the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference (MAAC), a position the program was familiar with during his time as an assistant coach (2001-2005). According to Yahoo! Sports and CBSSports.com, the Jaspers are the MAAC's preseason favorite. CBSSports.com also had Manhattan senior guard George Beamon as the projected conference Player of the Year.

Manhattan Staff

Manhattan second-year head coach Steve Masiello reloaded his coaching staff for the 2012-2013 season after former assistants Scott Padgett and Rashon Burno earned elevated coaching positions at other NCAA Division I institutions. During the offseason, Padgett was named associate head coach at Samford University in Birmingham, Ala., and Burno became an assistant coach under two-time national championship head coach Billy Donovan at the University of Florida.

The Jaspers current staff still features Associate Head Coach Matt Grady, who enters his second season in Riverdale. He brings a plethora of high level collegiate experience from his time at Louisville, Cincinnati, Murray State and Morehead State. Grady oversees the primary scouting and game planning responsibilities. "Matt is one of the best basketball minds out there," says Masiello.

Masiello reunited with assistant coach Rasheen Davis, who joined the staff in April. Davis came to Riverdale from Xavier, where he spent the previous two years as an assistant coach on Chris Mack's staff. Davis helped the Musketeers to back-to-back NCAA Tournament appearances, including a run to the Sweet Sixteen in 2011-12. He joined the Division I coaching ranks in 2007-08 as a program assistant at Louisville under head coach Rick Pitino and Masiello, who was an assistant on the staff.

Oliver Antigua is the third assistant on the Jaspers' staff. He joined the program in June after a successful career at St. Raymond High School in the Bronx, where he coached the Ravens to five Catholic High School Athletic Association (CHSAA) Class AA championships over his 13-year tenure. Antigua's brother Orlando is an assistant coach at Kentucky.

Jaspers in the Hall

Coinciding with the MAAC Championships moving to the MassMutual Center in Springfield, Mass., through 2014, a 600-square foot permanent display dedicated to the conference opened at the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame in October 2011. The MAAC Experience includes historical items and artifacts from the MAAC's rich 32-year history. In addition, all 10 MAAC schools have their own display within the exhibit. Manhattan's display features a commemorative No. 23 jersey worn by former Manhattan player, coach and athletic director Jack Powers '58, the former Executive Director of the NIT. Powers was Manhattan's first men's basketball inductee to the MAAC Honor Roll in March at the 2012 MAAC Championships.

The 2013 MAAC Honor Roll Class will feature Manhattan standout Keith Bullock '93 who will be inducted into The MAAC Experience exhibit this March during the MAAC Tournament. The 1990 MAAC Rookie of the Year, Bullock helped lead a renaissance of Manhattan basketball. He was a key starter on the 1992 team that snapped the Jaspers' 15-year postseason drought by earning a berth in the National Invitation Tournament (NIT).

As a senior in 1993, Bullock was named the MAAC Player of the Year and MAAC Tournament MVP, as Manhattan won its first MAAC title and reached the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 1958. A three-time First Team All-MAAC selection, Bullock finished his career with 1,992 points, 1,012 rebounds, ranking him second in program history on both lists.

#The6thBorough

#The6thBorough is the newly formed Official Manhattan Basketball Student Section in Draddy Gymnasium that made its debut at Manhattan Madness in October.

#The6thBorough was a concept developed by Student Government in conjunction with the Student Activities Office and the Athletic Department. #The6thBorough is located in the end zone closest to the visiting bench. Over 2,000 #The6thBorough t-shirts were distributed to students in an effort to organize involvement at basketball games and build a stronger home court advantage.

Manhattan All-Time Record

In its 107th season, the Manhattan College men's basketball program boasts a 1272-1142 (.527) overall record and 236-265 (.472) MAAC mark in 32 seasons as a conference member. The Jaspers' storied men's basketball team was established in 1904-05 and served a two-year hiatus due to World War II (1943-44 & 1944-45).

Jaspers at Draddy Gymnasium

Draddy Gymnasium has played host to several Jasper victories and memorable moments since it opened in 1978. Manhattan holds a 242-176 (.579) all-time record at Draddy Gymnasium.

What's a Jasper?

The unique nickname of Manhattan College's athletic teams, the Jaspers, comes from one of the College's most memorable figures, Brother Jasper of Mary, F.S.C., who served at the College in the late 19th century.

One of the greatest achievements of Brother Jasper was that he brought the then little-known sport of baseball to Manhattan College and became the team's first coach. Since Brother Jasper was also the Prefect of Discipline, he supervised the student fans at Manhattan College baseball games while also directing the team itself.

During one particularly warm and humid day when Manhattan College was playing a semi-pro baseball team called the Metropolitan, Brother Jasper noticed the Manhattan students were becoming restless and edgy as Manhattan came to bat in the seventh inning of a close game. To relieve the tension, Brother Jasper called time-out and told the students to stand up and stretch for a few minutes until the game resumed.

Since the College annually played the New York Giants in the late 1880's and into the 1890's at the old Polo Grounds, the Manhattan College practice of the "seventh inning stretch" spread into the major leagues, where it has now become a time-honored custom practiced by millions of fans annually.

2012-2013 Manhattan Men's Basketball Game Notes

Head Coach Steve Masiello Second Season (25-24)

Manhattan College head coach Steve Masiello has quickly restored the winning tradition to the storied men's basketball program in Riverdale, laying the foundation for the Jaspers' return to prominence. Masiello has rejuvenated the Jaspers with strong national recruiting that has transformed Manhattan into a top contender in the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference for years to come.

Long-time ESPN college basketball commentator Dick Vitale has even noted, "Remember this name, Steve Masiello. A young, rising coach doing a great job at Manhattan."

Masiello was named Manhattan's 23rd head coach in program history on April 11, 2011. He arrived back in his native New York after spending six years in the Big East as an assistant at Louisville under head coach Rick Pitino.

In his first season at Manhattan, the Jaspers enjoyed the biggest turnaround in the nation, posting 21 victories in 2011-2012, a 15-win improvement from the previous season. It went down as the largest turnaround in program history, and he posted the second most wins by a Manhattan first-year head coach, trailing only Fran Fraschilla's 23 victories in 1992-93.

Masiello garnered Co-Coach of the Year honors by the Metropolitan Writer's Association in 2011-12 as he led Manhattan to its first postseason appearance since 2006. The Jaspers advanced to the Second Round of the CollegeInsider.com Tournament (CIT). Masiello mentored three All-MAAC selections in 2011-2012, including First Team honoree and the league's scoring champion George Beamon.

The Jaspers have also excelled in the classroom under Masiello. Three players earned both MAAC All-Academic distinction and the prestigious Honors Court recognition by the National Association of Basketball Coaches (NABC) in 2012. It marked the most student-athlete honorees on both award lists out of the 10 MAAC institutions.

Over his six-year tenure at Louisville, Masiello helped lead the Cards to a 148-61 (.708) overall record, six straight 20-win seasons and four NCAA Tournament appearances. Louisville advanced to the Elite Eight twice (2008 & 2009) during that time. Masiello played a vital role in building Louisville's 2009 Big East Championship team, which won 31 games, including a program record 16 in conference, and entered the NCAA Tournament as the No. 1 overall seed. One of the nation's most renowned recruiters, Masiello effectively directed the Cards' recruiting efforts by signing four Top-20 recruiting classes, which included four McDonald's All-Americans over his time in Louisville. The Cards' 2008 recruiting class garnered a No. 4 national ranking, featuring 2008 USA Today High School National Player of the Year and future NBA player Samardo Samuels.

Masiello was named one of the nation's Top 25 collegiate assistant coaches according to FoxSports.com (2010) & Rivals.com (2007). He managed the Cards' game preparation and scouting responsibilities for his last three years with the program as Louisville amassed a 76-29 (.724) overall record, including a 39-15 (.722) mark in the Big East during this stretch.

Masiello is back in Riverdale for his second coaching tenure at Manhattan. He previously helped lead the Jaspers to three postseason appearances in four years (2001-2005) as an assistant, which included two trips to the NCAA Tournament (2003 & 2004) and one to the NIT (2002). Under his tutelage, the Jaspers posted an 83-36 (.697) overall record and won the 2003 & 2004 Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference Championships. Masiello was a key contributor on the Jaspers' coaching staff which helped lead Manhattan to its third NCAA Tournament victory in program history in 2004, defeating Florida in the First Round. Prior to Manhattan, Masiello served as the administrative assistant at Tulane under head coach Shawn Finney for one year (2000-01).

A 2000 graduate of the University of Kentucky with a degree in communications, Masiello was a four-year member of the Wildcats' basketball team, playing under head coaches Rick Pitino (1996-97) and Tubby Smith (1997-2000). During his playing career, Kentucky went to the Final Four twice (1997 & 1998), advancing to the National Championship game both times and winning the title in 1998. Masiello was named the Wildcats' co-captain his senior year. Masiello hails from White Plains, N.Y., and attended Archbishop Stepinac High School. He completed his final two years at the Harvey School in Katonah, N.Y., where he helped the basketball program win the New England Prep School Athletic Association Championship. Masiello also served as a ball boy for the New York Knicks during his youth.
