News and Notes

Manhattan begins a two game road series when the Jaspers visit Rider on Sunday. The Jaspers look to rebound from a 51-41 loss to Loyola on Friday at Draddy Gymnasium. Sophomore forward Emmy Andujar was a bright spot in the setback as he exploded for a double-double, finishing with a game-high 12 points and a career-high 16 rebounds.

The Jaspers' defense held the Greyhounds to their lowest scoring effort in Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference (MAAC) action this season, but Manhattan was hindered by an off shooting night (31.1%). The Jaspers missed the offensive firepower of injured All-MAAC guard George Beamon, the MAAC's 2011-12 scoring leader (19.0 ppg), who has been sidelined by the medical staff for the rest of the season.

The Manhattan coaches are participating in the 10th Annual Suits and Sneakers Weekend, a cause to raise awareness for the American Cancer Society's 100th Anniversary "Finish the Fight" Movement. Over 4,000 college and high school coaches across the United States are participating to raise awareness promoting cancer prevention and early detection.

2012-2013 Manhattan Men's Basketball Game Notes

Scouting Report

Manhattan

The Jaspers hit the road for the next two games and look to snap a three game slide. Manhattan has a chance to rebound from a 51-41 loss on Friday to Loyola at Draddy Gymnasium. Emmy Andujar was a bright spot for the Jaspers on a slow offensive night as he recorded his third career double-double. Andujar, a 6'6" Bronx native, scored 12 points and dominated the glass pulling down a career-high 16 rebounds.

Manhattan will try for its second MAAC road win of the season when the Jaspers meet Rider. Earlier this month, the Jaspers grinded out a 55-53 win at Saint Peter's. Freshman forward Shane Richards led the way with a game-high 16 points on four three-pointers, while junior forward Rhamel Brown contributed 11 points on 5-for-7 shooting and corralled a team-high six rebounds to top Saint Peter's.

The Jaspers have rallied behind junior co-captains Brown and Michael Alvarado this season. Brown averages 11.5 points per game as he leads the MAAC shooting 55.8% from the field. Brown is the conference leader in blocks per game (2.6 bpg) and he ranks fifth in rebounding (6.7 rpg).

Alvarado is a two-time All-MAAC point guard who has averaged 8.5 points and 2.0 assists per game. He is the Jaspers' top free-throw shooter hitting 79.7% of his attempts this season.

Richards has emerged as a premier three-point shooting threat in the MAAC. The freshman from New York City leads Manhattan with 38 threes. He has delivered three performances where he has hit six three-pointers. Richards stands second in the MAAC averaging 3.1 threes per contest against league opponents.

Manhattan ranks third in the league holding MAAC opponents to 61.0 points per game. The Jaspers are fourth with a 40.7% field goal defense in conference games.

Rider

The Broncs enter the contest tied for fourth in the MAAC with a 6-3 conference record. Rider had its five game win streak snapped on Friday with a 67-50 home loss to Canisius.

Rider is led by juniors Anthony Myles (12.2 ppg) and Daniel Stewart (11.0 ppg). Stewart is the Broncs' top rebounder with 6.7 boards per game, which ranks fifth in the MAAC.

The Broncs are the third best three-point shooting team in the league with a 35.5% field goal percentage beyond the arc. Myles tops the team with 33 three-point field goals, while junior guard Tommy Pereira has 30 threes shooting 44.1% from downtown.

Senior guard Jonathon Thompson is the third Bronc who has averaged double-figures in scoring this season (10.7 ppg). He has a team-high 71 assists this year and is in the top-10 of the MAAC averaging 3.4 per game.

Rider is 5-4 at home this season, but has won three of four at Alumni Gymnasium this month.

Last Game

Loyola 51, Manhattan 41
January 25, 2013
Riverdale, N.Y. - Draddy Gymnasium

Erik Etherly scored 12 points and grabbed seven rebounds helping Loyola grind out a 51-41 victory over Manhattan at Draddy Gymnasium on Friday. Sophomore forward Emmy Andujar led a slow offensive night for the Jaspers posting 12 points to go along with a career-high 16 rebounds. It was Andujar's third career double-double.

It was the fifth time in six home games the Jaspers' defense kept an opponent to 60 points or fewer, but an off shooting night is what hindered Manhattan. The Jaspers went 31.1% (14-45) from the field with 26 of its 41 points coming from the bench.

Junior point guard Michael Alvarado, junior forward Rhamel Brown and sophomore forward Donovan Kates added seven points apiece. Graduate student Roberto Colonette set a career-high with three blocks.

Loyola received eight points and a team-high nine rebounds from graduate student Anthony Winbush. R.J. Williams and Robert Olson each chipped in eight points. The Greyhounds didn't torch the net either shooting 38.6% (17-44) from the field.

Manhattan outrebounded the Greyhounds (36-34) who entered the contest leading the MAAC with a +3.0 advantage on the glass.

Last Meeting

Rider 69, Manhattan 60
January 10, 2013
Riverdale, N.Y. - Draddy Gymnasium

Daniel Stewart and Anthony Myles went for double-doubles to lift Rider past Manhattan 69-60 on Jan. 10 at Draddy Gymnasium. Jaspers' junior forward Rhamel Brown posted his ninth career double-double scoring all 15 of his points in the second half to go along with 11 rebounds in 21 minutes of action. Manhattan freshman forward Shane Richards matched a career-high with 18 points on six three-pointers in the setback playing without injured All-MAAC guards George Beamon and Michael Alvarado.

Stewart had his double-double by the end of the first half as he finished with a game-high 22 points and 16 rebounds. He shot 7-for-11 from the field. Myles added 13 points and 14 rebounds.

Freshman point guard CJ Jones gave Manhattan solid minutes off the bench as he scored eight of his career-high 11 points in the second half. Jones handed out three assists and grabbed four rebounds in the contest.

Manhattan erased an eight point halftime deficit and pulled within one point of Rider late in the second half after a 14-5 run. Jones hit the front end of a set of free-throws to trail 54-53 with 4:31 on the clock. Stewart answered with a three-point play followed by a layup to open a 59-56 advantage for the Broncs. Manhattan did not get any closer.

Rider outrebounded Manhattan 48-32 and hit 24-of-36 free-throw attempts. The Jaspers went 9-for-19 at the line, while shooting 36.8% (21-57) from the field.

Series History

Manhattan and Rider will meet for the 41st time in a series that began during the 1929-30 season. The clubs split the regular-season series last season for the sixth time in the last nine years.

Manhattan conquered a major obstacle last season defeating Rider in Lawrenceville, N.J. for the first time in nearly nine years. The Jaspers won 71-55 on Dec. 2, 2011, which marked head coach Steve Masiello's first MAAC win. It was Manhattan's first win at Alumni Gymnasium since Jan. 16, 2003.

George Beamon and Michael Alvarado scored 17 points apiece to lift Manhattan past Rider in their last trip to Lawrenceville, N.J. Rhamel Brown contributed nine points, 12 rebounds and block five shots in the victory.

Andujar's All-Around Performance

Sophomore forward Emmy Andujar is coming off his top all-around performance of the season in the Jaspers last contest with Loyola on Friday before an ESPNU audience. Andujar exploded for his first double-double of the season and third of his career finishing with a game-high 12 points and career-high 16 rebounds. Andujar also led the Jaspers in assists (3) and steals (2) in 36 minutes of work. It was the fourth time he led Manhattan in scoring this season and fifth time he topped the team in rebounding.

Andujar is the Jaspers third highest active scorer posting 7.5 points appearing in all 19 games this season. He leads the team with 70 defensive rebounds and has averaged 4.6 rebounds and 2.2 assists per game.

Jaspers Challenged with Non-League Slate

Manhattan played arguably the most difficult non-conference schedule in the MAAC this season. Coming off a 21-win campaign, returning all five starters and 81.2% of the scoring offense, Manhattan compiled an aggressive non-league slate that featured five teams that advanced to the 2012 postseason and won 20+ games last year (Louisville, Harvard, Dayton, LIU Brooklyn, Stony Brook). The Jaspers did not account for the 2011-12 MAAC scoring champion George Beamon to go down with an ankle injury two days before the opener at Louisville. Despite the setback, Manhattan has fared well as the team is finding its identity with a roster that features Preseason All-MAAC selections Rhamel Brown, Michael Alvarado and Emmy Andujar. The Jaspers are playing at a higher level since entering the MAAC schedule.

Block Party

Jaspers' junior forward Rhamel Brown engraved his name in the Manhattan men's basketball record book. The 6'7" forward set the program's single season blocks record last season with 84 rejections. Brown's 2.47 blocks per game average ranked in the top-20 nationally in 2011-2012, leading the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference in this category for the second straight year.

In 2010-2011, Brown blocked 68 shots, which is the highest total ever by a Jasper freshman, leading the MAAC with 2.2 blocks per game.

Brown is second on the program's career blocks list and on pace to break the Manhattan record held by Steve Grant (220, 1974-78).

Career Blocks

1. Steve Grant (1974-78)	220
2. Rhamel Brown (2010-present)	201

Game 20 vs. Rider - January 27, 2013

2012-2013 Manhattan Men's Basketball Game Notes

Youth Movement

Injuries that have sidelined All-MAAC guards George Beamon for the season and Michael Alvarado for a three-game stretch provided the Jasper underclassmen opportunities that they have seized as of late. Freshman forward Shane Richards has fully embraced his increased minutes as he is averaging 11.3 points with 33 three-point field goals in 27.4 minutes in the last 10 games. Richards scored a career-high 18 points with six threes on three occasions this season at Barclays Center against South Carolina (Dec. 22), against Rider (Jan. 10) at Draddy Gymnasium and at Canisius (Jan. 17).

Freshman point guard CJ Jones has delivered solid minutes in the last seven games where he averaged 5.6 points shooting 44.1% from the field. Jones scored eight points on 3-for-5 shooting at Iona on Jan. 6. Then on Jan. 10, he erupted for eight of his career-high 11 points, going along with four rebounds and three assists against Rider. He had his second double-digit scoring effort at Niagara (Jan. 19) finishing with 10 points on 4-for-6 shooting.

First year guard RaShawn Stores has also shined this season. Stores leads the Jaspers with 50 assists and is ranked in the top-15 of the MAAC with 2.6 assists per game. The sophomore from the Bronx had his top performance of the year leading Manhattan to a 20-point victory over Siena (Dec. 9). Stores exploded for career-highs with 12 points, six assists and shot a perfect 4-for-4 from beyond the arc.

Manhattan Inks Three to NLI's

Manhattan signed three highly-touted student-athletes during the NCAA Early Signing Period. Former five-star recruit and elite junior college prospect Chris Thomas (Denver, Colo./Chipola College), along with incoming freshmen, 6'10" center Carlton Allen (Ewing, N.J./Life Center Academy) and 6'0" guard Tyler Wilson (Bronx, N.Y./Cardinal Hayes) signed their National Letters of Intent to play for the Jaspers in 2013-14.

Thomas is 6'5" shooting guard from Colorado who is regarded as one of the purest scorers in the nation with high-major talent. He will come to Manhattan after one season playing at Chipola College for head coach Patrick Blake in Marianna, Fla. Chipola was the preseason fourth-ranked team in the country on the National Junior College Athletic Association (NJCAA) poll. Thomas was ranked as the #1 shooting guard and fifth overall prospect by Rivals.com and was an ESPN Super 60 recruit.

Allen comes to Manhattan from Life Center Academy in Burlington, N.J., where he plays for head coach Pervis Ellison, an 11-year NBA veteran. Allen is a 6'10", 240-pound student-athlete who provides a low post scoring threat for the Jaspers. He maneuvers well in the deep post and has a repertoire of inside moves, including the jump hook, according to ESPN.com. ESPN.com also ranks Allen as the 41st player at his position in 2013 class.

Wilson is a speedy guard who handles the ball well and is a legitimate scoring threat. He helped lead Cardinal Hayes to the Catholic High School Athletic Association (CHSAA) Class AA intersectional semifinals as a junior. He averaged approximately 12 points and seven assists per game last year, after playing two years at Rice High School.

Jaspers Named MAAC Rookies of the Week

First-year guard RaShawn Stores and freshman Shane Richards have each been named the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference Rookie of the Week this season.

Stores earned the award on Dec. 10 after the 5'11" point guard from the Bronx averaged 10.5 points shooting 61.5% (8-13) from the field in two games. He also added nine assists without having a turnover and buried 71.4% (5-7) of his three-point field goal attempts. Stores had his top performance of the week against Siena (Dec. 9) as he helped the Jaspers earn a 75-55 triumph. He set career highs with 12 points and six assists, while shooting a perfect 4-for-4 from three-point territory. Stores also grabbed five rebounds and swiped two steals in 24 minutes off the bench.

Richards was selected MAAC Rookie of the Week on Jan. 14. He averaged 14.5 points and buried eight three-pointers in two appearances against Rider (Jan. 10) and Marist (Jan. 13). The 6'5" New York City native exploded for a team-high 18 points before a national audience on ESPN3 versus Rider. He delivered another double-digit scoring performance finishing with 11 points to help lead Manhattan to a 65-53 victory over Marist.

MAAC Player of the Week Honors

Manhattan senior guard George Beamon was named MAAC Player of the Week on Nov. 26 after averaging 24.0 points and 5.5 rebounds in the two contests against Hofstra and Dayton. Beamon shot 64% (16-25) from the field and 81.3% (13-16) at the free-throw line, making a seamless transition back into the starting lineup after missing the Jaspers' first two contests with an injury.

Beamon exploded for 29 points and grabbed seven rebounds to lead Manhattan to a 67-56 victory over Hofstra. He shot 10-for-15 (66.7%) from the field and it was his 19th career 20+point performance.

The Roslyn, N.Y., native continued his superb play at Dayton as he delivered his 50th straight double-figure scoring effort. Beamon finished with 19 points, four rebounds, three assists and three steals. He was 6-for-10 (60%) from the field and 6-for-6 at the free-throw line.

Beamon Among Top Returning Scorers in Nation

Manhattan guard George Beamon entered his final season in Riverdale ranked among the top returning scorers in the country. Beamon, the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference's (MAAC) reigning scoring champion, has finished in the top-3 of the league's chart the last two years. The 6'4" native of Roslyn, N.Y., averaged a career-high 19.0 points per game last season, which has landed him 7th place among all returning players in NCAA Division I. Beamon's 2011-2012 scoring average is also the 6th highest among returning seniors for the 2012-2013 campaign.

The Masiello Project

Manhattan head coach Steve Masiello quickly restored the winning tradition in Riverdale with the greatest turn around in program history last season. The Jaspers' 21-13 overall record last season was the second best record by a Manhattan first-year head coach post-World War II era. It is only behind Fran Frascilla who finished the 1992-93 campaign 23-7 after inheriting a team coming off a 25-9 season under the direction of head coach Steve Lappas.

Manhattan Top of the Heap in Media Polls

After only one season with Steve Masiello at the helm, Manhattan was picked to finish the 2012-13 campaign atop the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference (MAAC), a position the program was familiar with during his time as an assistant coach (2001-2005). According to Yahoo! Sports and CBSSports.com, the Jaspers are the MAAC's preseason favorite. CBSSports.com also had Manhattan senior guard George Beamon as the projected conference Player of the Year.

Manhattan Second on MAAC Preseason Poll

Manhattan garnered its highest preseason ranking in seven years on the annual MAAC Preseason Coaches' Poll. The Jaspers were selected to finish as the league's runner up in 2012-13 as announced on ESPN3. Manhattan received two first place votes, and was eight points behind preseason favorite Loyola, the defending conference champion.

Preseason All-MAAC Honors

Manhattan had a league-best four players selected to the 2012-13 Preseason All-MAAC Team. Senior guard George Beamon was named to the First Team, while juniors Michael Alvarado, Rhamel Brown and sophomore Emmy Andujar received Third Team honors. These four Jaspers combined for 60% of the team's scoring last season and more than 50% of rebounding and assists for a squad that won 21-games.

Beamon is a two-time All-MAAC selection who was named to the First Team last year after leading the MAAC in scoring with 19.0 points per game. He posted double-figures in the scoring column in all 33 appearances in 2011-12 and led the team in points 26 times. Beamon ranked in the top-25 nationally for scoring average, and he finished in the top-10 of the MAAC for field goal percentage (48.5% - 10th), free-throw shooting (80.1% - 4th), steals (1.5 - 6th), three-point field goal percentage (42.7% - 4th) and three-point field goals (61 - 9th). Beamon scored 1,131 points in the previous two seasons.

Alvarado, a junior guard, was named to the All-MAAC Third Team in 2011-12. He started 26 of 30 appearances and tied for second on the team in scoring (8.5) and assists per game (3.2), which was also the sixth best average in the MAAC. Alvarado ranked among the leaders in the conference with a 76.6% free-throw percentage.

Brown is a 6'7" forward who earned the MAAC Defensive Player of the Year award last season. Brown led the MAAC with 2.5 blocks per game. He appeared in all 34 games for the Jaspers averaging 7.9 points and 4.9 rebounds in 19.1 minutes per game. He ranked second in the MAAC with a 60.1% field goal percentage.

Andujar was a MAAC All-Rookie Team selection in 2011-12. He started 32 of 33 appearances tying for second on the team in scoring with Alvarado (8.5 ppg). The 6'6" forward dished out a team-high 105 assists and led Manhattan with 189 rebounds.

Manhattan Staff

Manhattan second-year head coach Steve Masiello reloaded his coaching staff for the 2012-2013 season after former assistants Scott Padgett and Rashon Burno earned elevated coaching positions at other NCAA Division I institutions. During the offseason, Padgett was named associate head coach at Samford University in Birmingham, Ala., and Burno became an assistant coach under two-time national championship head coach Billy Donovan at the University of Florida.

The Jaspers current staff still features Associate Head Coach Matt Grady, who enters his second season in Riverdale. He brings a plethora of high level collegiate experience from his time at Louisville, Cincinnati, Murray State and Morehead State. Grady oversees the primary scouting and game planning responsibilities. "Matt is one of the best basketball minds out there," says Masiello.

Masiello reunited with assistant coach Rasheen Davis, who joined the staff in April. Davis came to Riverdale from Xavier, where he spent the previous two years as an assistant coach on Chris Mack's staff. Davis helped the Musketeers to back-to-back NCAA Tournament appearances, including a run to the Sweet Sixteen in 2011-12. He joined the Division I coaching ranks in 2007-08 as a program assistant at Louisville under head coach Rick Pitino and Masiello, who was an assistant on the staff.

Oliver Antigua is the third assistant on the Jaspers' staff. He joined the program in June after a successful career at St. Raymond High School in the Bronx, where he coached the Ravens to five Catholic High School Athletic Association (CHSAA) Class AA championships over his 13-year tenure. Antigua's brother Orlando is an assistant coach at Kentucky.

Jaspers in the Hall

Coinciding with the MAAC Championships moving to the MassMutual Center in Springfield, Mass., through 2014, a 600-square foot permanent display dedicated to the conference opened at the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame in October 2011. The MAAC Experience includes historical items and artifacts from the MAAC's rich 32-year history. In addition, all 10 MAAC schools have their own display within the exhibit. Manhattan's display features a commemorative No. 23 jersey worn by former Manhattan player, coach and athletic director Jack Powers '58, the former Executive Director of the NIT. Powers was Manhattan's first men's basketball inductee to the MAAC Honor Roll in March at the 2012 MAAC Championships.

The 2013 MAAC Honor Roll Class will feature Manhattan standout Keith Bullock '93 who will be inducted into The MAAC Experience exhibit this March during the MAAC Tournament. The 1990 MAAC Rookie of the Year, Bullock helped lead a renaissance of Manhattan basketball. He was a key starter on the 1992 team that snapped the Jaspers' 15-year postseason drought by earning a berth in the National Invitation Tournament (NIT).

As a senior in 1993, Bullock was named the MAAC Player of the Year and MAAC Tournament MVP, as Manhattan won its first MAAC title and reached the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 1958. A three-time First Team All-MAAC selection, Bullock finished his career with 1,992 points, 1,012 rebounds, ranking him second in program history on both lists.

#The6thBorough

#The6thBorough is the newly formed Official Manhattan Basketball Student Section in Draddy Gymnasium that made its debut at Manhattan Madness in October.

#The6thBorough was a concept developed by Student Government in conjunction with the Student Activities Office and the Athletic Department. #The6thBorough is located in the end zone closest to the visiting bench. Over 2,000 #The6thBorough t-shirts were distributed to students in an effort to organize involvement at basketball games and build a stronger home court advantage.

Manhattan All-Time Record

In its 107th season, the Manhattan College men's basketball program boasts a 1273-1145 (.527) overall record and 237-268 (.470) MAAC mark in 32 seasons as a conference member. The Jaspers' storied men's basketball team was established in 1904-05 and served a two-year hiatus due to World War II (1943-44 & 1944-45).

Jaspers at Draddy Gymnasium

Draddy Gymnasium has played host to several Jasper victories and memorable moments since it opened in 1978. Manhattan holds a 243-177 (.579) all-time record at Draddy Gymnasium.

What's a Jasper?

The unique nickname of Manhattan College's athletic teams, the Jaspers, comes from one of the College's most memorable figures, Brother Jasper of Mary, F.S.C., who served at the College in the late 19th century.

One of the greatest achievements of Brother Jasper was that he brought the then little-known sport of baseball to Manhattan College and became the team's first coach. Since Brother Jasper was also the Prefect of Discipline, he supervised the student fans at Manhattan College baseball games while also directing the team itself.

During one particularly warm and humid day when Manhattan College was playing a semi-pro baseball team called the Metropolitan, Brother Jasper noticed the Manhattan students were becoming restless and edgy as Manhattan came to bat in the seventh inning of a close game. To relieve the tension, Brother Jasper called time-out and told the students to stand up and stretch for a few minutes until the game resumed.

Since the College annually played the New York Giants in the late 1880's and into the 1890's at the old Polo Grounds, the Manhattan College practice of the "seventh inning stretch" spread into the major leagues, where it has now become a time-honored custom practiced by millions of fans annually.

2012-2013 Manhattan Men's Basketball Game Notes

Head Coach Steve Masiello Second Season (26-27)

Manhattan College head coach Steve Masiello has quickly restored the winning tradition to the storied men's basketball program in Riverdale, laying the foundation for the Jaspers' return to prominence. Masiello has rejuvenated the Jaspers with strong national recruiting that has transformed Manhattan into a top contender in the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference for years to come.

Long-time ESPN college basketball commentator Dick Vitale has even noted, "Remember this name, Steve Masiello. A young, rising coach doing a great job at Manhattan."

Masiello was named Manhattan's 23rd head coach in program history on April 11, 2011. He arrived back in his native New York after spending six years in the Big East as an assistant at Louisville under head coach Rick Pitino.

In his first season at Manhattan, the Jaspers enjoyed the biggest turnaround in the nation, posting 21 victories in 2011-2012, a 15-win improvement from the previous season. It went down as the largest turnaround in program history, and he posted the second most wins by a Manhattan first-year head coach, trailing only Fran Fraschilla's 23 victories in 1992-93.

Masiello garnered Co-Coach of the Year honors by the Metropolitan Writer's Association in 2011-12 as he led Manhattan to its first postseason appearance since 2006. The Jaspers advanced to the Second Round of the CollegeInsider.com Tournament (CIT). Masiello mentored three All-MAAC selections in 2011-2012, including First Team honoree and the league's scoring champion George Beamon.

The Jaspers have also excelled in the classroom under Masiello. Three players earned both MAAC All-Academic distinction and the prestigious Honors Court recognition by the National Association of Basketball Coaches (NABC) in 2012. It marked the most student-athlete honorees on both award lists out of the 10 MAAC institutions.

Over his six-year tenure at Louisville, Masiello helped lead the Cards to a 148-61 (.708) overall record, six straight 20-win seasons and four NCAA Tournament appearances. Louisville advanced to the Elite Eight twice (2008 & 2009) during that time. Masiello played a vital role in building Louisville's 2009 Big East Championship team, which won 31 games, including a program record 16 in conference, and entered the NCAA Tournament as the No. 1 overall seed. One of the nation's most renowned recruiters, Masiello effectively directed the Cards' recruiting efforts by signing four Top-20 recruiting classes, which included four McDonald's All-Americans over his time in Louisville. The Cards' 2008 recruiting class garnered a No. 4 national ranking, featuring 2008 USA Today High School National Player of the Year and future NBA player Samardo Samuels.

Masiello was named one of the nation's Top 25 collegiate assistant coaches according to FoxSports.com (2010) & Rivals.com (2007). He managed the Cards' game preparation and scouting responsibilities for his last three years with the program as Louisville amassed a 76-29 (.724) overall record, including a 39-15 (.722) mark in the Big East during this stretch.

Masiello is back in Riverdale for his second coaching tenure at Manhattan. He previously helped lead the Jaspers to three postseason appearances in four years (2001-2005) as an assistant, which included two trips to the NCAA Tournament (2003 & 2004) and one to the NIT (2002). Under his tutelage, the Jaspers posted an 83-36 (.697) overall record and won the 2003 & 2004 Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference Championships. Masiello was a key contributor on the Jaspers' coaching staff which helped lead Manhattan to its third NCAA Tournament victory in program history in 2004, defeating Florida in the First Round. Prior to Manhattan, Masiello served as the administrative assistant at Tulane under head coach Shawn Finney for one year (2000-01).

A 2000 graduate of the University of Kentucky with a degree in communications, Masiello was a four-year member of the Wildcats' basketball team, playing under head coaches Rick Pitino (1996-97) and Tubby Smith (1997-2000). During his playing career, Kentucky went to the Final Four twice (1997 & 1998), advancing to the National Championship game both times and winning the title in 1998. Masiello was named the Wildcats' co-captain his senior year. Masiello hails from White Plains, N.Y., and attended Archbishop Stepinac High School. He completed his final two years at the Harvey School in Katonah, N.Y., where he helped the basketball program win the New England Prep School Athletic Association Championship. Masiello also served as a ball boy for the New York Knicks during his youth.
