News and Notes

Manhattan travels to Albany for the Jaspers' second straight road game taking on Siena at the Times Union Center before a national audience on ESPNU. The Jaspers are coming off a convincing 62-51 victory at Rider on Sunday. It was the second straight year Manhattan defeated the Broncs at hostile Alumni Gymnasium, marking only the third time the Jaspers won in Lawrenceville, N.J., since Rider joined the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference in 1997-98.

Freshman standout Shane Richards led the Jaspers in scoring for the fourth time in the last eight games with a career-high 19 points at Rider. Richards converted 7-of-8 (87.5%) of his field goal attempts, including four three-pointers. Brown delivered his third career double-double at Rider with 10 points and 10 rebounds, going along with six blocks.

Manhattan's defense has clamped down on opponents in the last five games holding these teams to 56.6 points per game and a 28.4% three-point field goal percentage. Rider was the fifth team of 10 MAAC opponents that the Jaspers' defense kept in the 50s.

The Jaspers look forward to a season-ending homestand, after playing only six of its 21 games at Draddy Gymnasium. Five of Manhattan's last seven MAAC games will be played in Riverdale.

Scouting Report

Manhattan

The Jaspers play their second straight road game before returning to Draddy Gymnasium for five of the final seven Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference contests of the regular-season. Manhattan earned its fourth double-digit victory of the season defeating Rider 62-51 on Sunday in Lawrenceville, N.J.

Manhattan rallied behind freshman forward Shane Richards and junior forward Rhamel Brown to take down the Broncs. Richards exploded for a career-high 19 points on 7-for-8 shooting with four three-pointers, while Brown delivered his third double-double of the season and 10th of his career (10 points, 10 rebounds). Brown, the reigning MAAC Defensive Player of the Year, also swatted six shots.

Since earning his first career start at Marist on Dec. 7, Richards has emerged top scoring threat in the Jaspers' offense. Richards has averaged 10.7 points and has buried all 42 of his threes in the last 14 games, since he knocked down his first career field goal against the Red Foxes. Richards ranks second in the MAAC, averaging 3.2 three-pointers per contest against league opponents, and he is fifth in the conference with a 44.4% shooting mark beyond the arc.

Brown has developed into one of the premier big men in the MAAC. The 6'7" Brooklyn native leads all active Jaspers with 11.4 points and 6.9 rebounds per game. Brown has taken on a larger scoring role in the absence of injured two-time All-MAAC guard George Beamon (19.0 ppg, 2011-12 MAAC scoring leader) who has been sidelined by the medical staff for the rest of the season. Brown has scored in double-figures 10 of the last 13 contests. He also leads the MAAC and stands 22nd nationally averaging 2.75 blocks per game.

Manhattan's defense has been spectacular against conference opponents as the Jaspers are tied for the league lead allowing only 60.0 points per MAAC contest. The Jaspers' 40.6% field goal defense against MAAC teams is the third best in the conference. The Jaspers have held their last two opponents to 51 points and their last five opponents below 65 points.

Siena

The Saints have won three of their last six games, including a 79-75 victory at Marist on Sunday. Siena is 2-1 in its last three games at the Times Union Center.

Siena is led by senior forward O.D. Anosike, who has averaged a double-double this season (13.1 points, 12.0 rebounds). Anosike leads the nation in rebounding and he is tied for third in the country with 13 double-doubles.

Saints' guard Evan Hymes was named to MAAC Co-Player of the Week on Monday after he posted 25.5 points and 5.5 assists in the last two games against Niagara and Marist. Hymes has a 12.0 scoring average and is sixth in the MAAC averaging 3.8 assists per game.

Siena recorded its top scoring performance of the season at Marist on Sunday (79 points), but has posted 59.4 points per game this season. The Saints sit behind Manhattan in fourth place on the MAAC three-point field goal chart averaging 6.1 threes per contest.

Last Game

Manhattan 62, Rider 51
January 27, 2013
Lawrenceville, N.J. - Alumni Gymnasium

Shane Richards erupted for a career-high 19 points helping Manhattan run away with a 62-51 victory at Rider on Sunday. Jaspers' junior forward Rhamel Brown delivered his 10th career double-double (10 points, 10 rebounds) and swatted six shots in the triumph.

It was the second straight year Manhattan defeated Rider on the road at Alumni Gymnasium, but it was only the third time that it happened since the Broncs joined the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference in 1997-98.

Manhattan torched the net shooting 52.6% (20-38) from the field and 7-for-11 (63.6%) beyond the arc. Richards anchored the premier shooting effort hitting 7-of-8 field goal attempts with four three-pointers. Sophomore forward Ryan McCoy had a perfect night sinking all three shot attempts, including a pair of key threes in the second half. McCoy matched a career-high with eight points going along with two assists in 16 minutes off the bench.

Mark Jackson gave Manhattan 21 energetic minutes in his first career start. Jackson chipped in four points, two rebounds and dished out a highlight reel assist. Junior point guard Michael Alvarado complemented Jackson's effort in the backcourt with a game-high four assists.

Manhattan did not trail in the contest and opened up a 15-point lead in the second half.

Last Meeting

Manhattan 75, Siena 55
December 9, 2012
Riverdale, N.Y. - Draddy Gymnasium

Manhattan delivered its top all-around performance of the season rolling past Siena 75-55 at Draddy Gymnasium. Four Jaspers scored in double-figures with junior forward Rhamel Brown leading the way with a game-high 21 points on 9-for-12 shooting.

Sophomore point guard RaShawn Stores set career-highs with 12 points and six assists, while pulling down five rebounds in 24 minutes off the bench. Stores buried all four three-point field goal attempts and did not commit a turnover.

As a team, the Jaspers shot 45.8% from the field, including nine three-pointers. Sophomore forward Emmy Andujar contributed to the solid offensive effort by scoring 11 points on 5-for-8 shooting. Andujar also grabbed a team-high seven rebounds.

Junior point guard Michael Alvarado scored in double-figures for the fifth time in eight appearances this season adding 10 points to the Manhattan total. Alvarado was 6-for-6 from the free-throw line as the Jaspers finished 85.7% (12-14).

Freshman forward Shane Richards also delivered a solid performance in his second straight start. The Jaspers' freshman forward knocked down three clutch three pointers in the second half as he scored nine points.

Siena was led by sophomore guard Rakeem Brookins who had 19 points. Saints' senior forward O.D. Anosike added 16 points and 13 rebounds, while shooting 36.8% (21-57) from the field.

Series History

Manhattan and Siena meet for the 87th time in series history, and the 64th time at the NCAA Division I level. The Jaspers own a 10-game advantage in the MAAC rivalry which began in the 1946-47 season.

The Jaspers have won 10 of their last 12 home games with Siena in Riverdale, but have not won at the Times Union Center in their last eight meetings with the Saints. Manhattan's last victory over Siena in Albany was on Jan. 30, 2006 when the Jaspers completed the regular-season sweep of the Saints with a 63-58 win. Devon Austin led the charge with 20 points and Arturo Dubois posted a double-double (10 points, 11 rebounds).

Manhattan's last victory at the Times Union Center came in the 2010 MAAC Tournament Opening Round against Loyola (94-79).

Jaspers Get Defensive

Manhattan ranks among the top defensive teams in the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference (MAAC) this season. The Jaspers are tied for the league lead yielding only 60.0 points per game against conference opponents. Manhattan is third in field goal defense (40.6%) versus the MAAC.

The Jaspers' active defense revolves around the MAAC's reigning Defensive Player of the Year Rhamel Brown who leads the league for the third straight year in blocked shots (2.75). Brown is averaging 3.5 blocks in the Jaspers' 10 conference games, which includes two career-high seven block performances and one six block effort. He has taken 75 of his team-leading 138 rebounds off the defensive glass.

In the last five MAAC games, the Jaspers have limited opponents to 56.6 points and a 28.4% three-point field goal shooting mark. Manhattan also holds a +5.0 rebounding advantage.

Freshman Phenom

Manhattan freshman forward Shane Richards has developed into one of the Jaspers' top offensive threats this season. Richards hit his stride after earning his first career start at Marist on Dec. 7. The 6'6" rookie from New York City knocked down his first collegiate field goal against the Red Foxes and has been a key part of the rotation ever since. Richards has seven double-digit scoring performances this season with all of them coming in the last 11 games and has hit at least one three-pointer per contest during this stretch. Richards is sixth in the MAAC shooting 40% beyond the arc. He is second in the league averaging 3.2 threes in MAAC games.

Jaspers Challenged with Non-League Slate

Manhattan played arguably the most difficult non-conference schedule in the MAAC this season. Coming off a 21-win campaign, returning all five starters and 81.2% of the scoring offense, Manhattan compiled an aggressive non-league slate that featured five teams that advanced to the 2012 postseason and won 20+ games last year (Louisville, Harvard, Dayton, LIU Brooklyn, Stony Brook). The Jaspers did not account for the 2011-12 MAAC scoring champion George Beamon to go down with an ankle injury two days before the opener at Louisville. Despite the setback, Manhattan has fared well as the team is finding its identity with a roster that features Preseason All-MAAC selections Rhamel Brown, Michael Alvarado and Emmy Andujar. The Jaspers are playing at a higher level since entering the MAAC schedule.

Block Party

Jaspers' junior forward Rhamel Brown engraved his name in the Manhattan men's basketball record book. The 6'7" forward set the program's single season blocks record last season with 84 rejections. Brown's 2.47 blocks per game average ranked in the top-20 nationally in 2011-2012, leading the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference in this category for the second straight year.

In 2010-2011, Brown blocked 68 shots, which is the highest total ever by a Jasper freshman, leading the MAAC with 2.2 blocks per game.

Brown is second on the program's career blocks list and on pace to break the Manhattan record held by Steve Grant (220, 1974-78).

Career Blocks

1. Steve Grant (1974-78)	220
2. Rhamel Brown (2010-present)	207

Game 21 at Siena - February 1, 2013

2012-2013 Manhattan Men's Basketball Game Notes

Youth Movement

Injuries that have sidelined All-MAAC guards George Beamon for the season and Michael Alvarado for a three-game stretch provided the Jasper underclassmen opportunities that they have seized. Freshman forward Shane Richards has fully embraced his increased minutes as he is averaging 11.7 points with 38 three-point field goals in 26.5 minutes in 10 MAAC games. Richards scored a career-high 19 points at Rider on Jan. 27, and had two 18 point efforts burying six threes against South Carolina (Dec. 22) and Rider (Jan. 10).

Freshman point guard CJ Jones has delivered solid minutes in MAAC action averaging nearly five points shooting 41% from the field. Jones scored eight points on 3-for-5 shooting at Iona on Jan. 6. Then on Jan. 10, he erupted for eight of his career-high 11 points, going along with four rebounds and three assists against Rider. He had his second double-digit scoring effort at Niagara (Jan. 19) finishing with 10 points on 4-for-6 shooting.

First year guard RaShawn Stores has also shined this season. Stores leads the Jaspers with 51 assists and is ranked in the top-15 of the MAAC with 2.6 assists per game. The sophomore from the Bronx had his top performance of the year leading Manhattan to a 20-point victory over Siena (Dec. 9). Stores exploded for career-highs with 12 points, six assists and shot a perfect 4-for-4 from beyond the arc.

Manhattan Inks Three to NLI's

Manhattan signed three highly-touted student-athletes during the NCAA Early Signing Period. Former five-star recruit and elite junior college prospect Chris Thomas (Denver, Colo./Chipola College), along with incoming freshmen, 6'10" center Carlton Allen (Ewing, N.J./Life Center Academy) and 6'0" guard Tyler Wilson (Bronx, N.Y./Cardinal Hayes) signed their National Letters of Intent to play for the Jaspers in 2013-14.

Thomas is 6'5" shooting guard from Colorado who is regarded as one of the purest scorers in the nation with high-major talent. He will come to Manhattan after one season playing at Chipola College for head coach Patrick Blake in Marianna, Fla. Chipola was the preseason fourth-ranked team in the country on the National Junior College Athletic Association (NJCAA) poll. Thomas was ranked as the #1 shooting guard and fifth overall prospect by Rivals.com and was an ESPN Super 60 recruit.

Allen comes to Manhattan from Life Center Academy in Burlington, N.J., where he plays for head coach Pervis Ellison, an 11-year NBA veteran. Allen is a 6'10", 240-pound student-athlete who provides a low post scoring threat for the Jaspers. He maneuvers well in the deep post and has a repertoire of inside moves, including the jump hook, according to ESPN.com. ESPN.com also ranks Allen as the 41st player at his position in 2013 class.

Wilson is a speedy guard who handles the ball well and is a legitimate scoring threat. He helped lead Cardinal Hayes to the Catholic High School Athletic Association (CHSAA) Class AA intersectional semifinals as a junior. He averaged approximately 12 points and seven assists per game last year, after playing two years at Rice High School.

Jaspers Named MAAC Rookies of the Week

First-year guard RaShawn Stores and freshman Shane Richards have each been named the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference Rookie of the Week this season.

Stores earned the award on Dec. 10 after the 5'11" point guard from the Bronx averaged 10.5 points shooting 61.5% (8-13) from the field in two games. He also added nine assists without having a turnover and buried 71.4% (5-7) of his three-point field goal attempts. Stores had his top performance of the week against Siena (Dec. 9) as he helped the Jaspers earn a 75-55 triumph. He set career highs with 12 points and six assists, while shooting a perfect 4-for-4 from three-point territory. Stores also grabbed five rebounds and swiped two steals in 24 minutes off the bench.

Richards was selected MAAC Rookie of the Week on Jan. 14. He averaged 14.5 points and buried eight three-pointers in two appearances against Rider (Jan. 10) and Marist (Jan. 13). The 6'5" New York City native exploded for a team-high 18 points before a national audience on ESPN3 versus Rider. He delivered another double-digit scoring performance finishing with 11 points to help lead Manhattan to a 65-53 victory over Marist.

MAAC Player of the Week Honors

Manhattan senior guard George Beamon was named MAAC Player of the Week on Nov. 26 after averaging 24.0 points and 5.5 rebounds in the two contests against Hofstra and Dayton. Beamon shot 64% (16-25) from the field and 81.3% (13-16) at the free-throw line, making a seamless transition back into the starting lineup after missing the Jaspers' first two contests with an injury.

Beamon exploded for 29 points and grabbed seven rebounds to lead Manhattan to a 67-56 victory over Hofstra. He shot 10-for-15 (66.7%) from the field and it was his 19th career 20+point performance.

The Roslyn, N.Y., native continued his superb play at Dayton as he delivered his 50th straight double-figure scoring effort. Beamon finished with 19 points, four rebounds, three assists and three steals. He was 6-for-10 (60%) from the field and 6-for-6 at the free-throw line.

Beamon Among Top Returning Scorers in Nation

Manhattan guard George Beamon entered his final season in Riverdale ranked among the top returning scorers in the country. Beamon, the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference's (MAAC) reigning scoring champion, has finished in the top-3 of the league's chart the last two years. The 6'4" native of Roslyn, N.Y., averaged a career-high 19.0 points per game last season, which has landed him 7th place among all returning players in NCAA Division I. Beamon's 2011-2012 scoring average is also the 6th highest among returning seniors for the 2012-2013 campaign.

The Masiello Project

Manhattan head coach Steve Masiello quickly restored the winning tradition in Riverdale with the greatest turn around in program history last season. The Jaspers' 21-13 overall record last season was the second best record by a Manhattan first-year head coach post-World War II era. It is only behind Fran Frascilla who finished the 1992-93 campaign 23-7 after inheriting a team coming off a 25-9 season under the direction of head coach Steve Lappas.

Manhattan Top of the Heap in Media Polls

After only one season with Steve Masiello at the helm, Manhattan was picked to finish the 2012-13 campaign atop the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference (MAAC), a position the program was familiar with during his time as an assistant coach (2001-2005). According to Yahoo! Sports and CBSSports.com, the Jaspers are the MAAC's preseason favorite. CBSSports.com also had Manhattan senior guard George Beamon as the projected conference Player of the Year.

Manhattan Second on MAAC Preseason Poll

Manhattan garnered its highest preseason ranking in seven years on the annual MAAC Preseason Coaches' Poll. The Jaspers were selected to finish as the league's runner up in 2012-13 as announced on ESPN3. Manhattan received two first place votes, and was eight points behind preseason favorite Loyola, the defending conference champion.

Preseason All-MAAC Honors

Manhattan had a league-best four players selected to the 2012-13 Preseason All-MAAC Team. Senior guard George Beamon was named to the First Team, while juniors Michael Alvarado, Rhamel Brown and sophomore Emmy Andujar received Third Team honors. These four Jaspers combined for 60% of the team's scoring last season and more than 50% of rebounding and assists for a squad that won 21-games.

Beamon is a two-time All-MAAC selection who was named to the First Team last year after leading the MAAC in scoring with 19.0 points per game. He posted double-figures in the scoring column in all 33 appearances in 2011-12 and led the team in points 26 times. Beamon ranked in the top-25 nationally for scoring average, and he finished in the top-10 of the MAAC for field goal percentage (48.5% - 10th), free-throw shooting (80.1% - 4th), steals (1.5 - 6th), three-point field goal percentage (42.7% - 4th) and three-point field goals (61 - 9th). Beamon scored 1,131 points in the previous two seasons.

Alvarado, a junior guard, was named to the All-MAAC Third Team in 2011-12. He started 26 of 30 appearances and tied for second on the team in scoring (8.5) and assists per game (3.2), which was also the sixth best average in the MAAC. Alvarado ranked among the leaders in the conference with a 76.6% free-throw percentage.

Brown is a 6'7" forward who earned the MAAC Defensive Player of the Year award last season. Brown led the MAAC with 2.5 blocks per game. He appeared in all 34 games for the Jaspers averaging 7.9 points and 4.9 rebounds in 19.1 minutes per game. He ranked second in the MAAC with a 60.1% field goal percentage.

Andujar was a MAAC All-Rookie Team selection in 2011-12. He started 32 of 33 appearances tying for second on the team in scoring with Alvarado (8.5 ppg). The 6'6" forward dished out a team-high 105 assists and led Manhattan with 189 rebounds.

Manhattan Staff

Manhattan second-year head coach Steve Masiello reloaded his coaching staff for the 2012-2013 season after former assistants Scott Padgett and Rashon Burno earned elevated coaching positions at other NCAA Division I institutions. During the offseason, Padgett was named associate head coach at Samford University in Birmingham, Ala., and Burno became an assistant coach under two-time national championship head coach Billy Donovan at the University of Florida.

The Jaspers current staff still features Associate Head Coach Matt Grady, who enters his second season in Riverdale. He brings a plethora of high level collegiate experience from his time at Louisville, Cincinnati, Murray State and Morehead State. Grady oversees the primary scouting and game planning responsibilities. "Matt is one of the best basketball minds out there," says Masiello.

Masiello reunited with assistant coach Rasheen Davis, who joined the staff in April. Davis came to Riverdale from Xavier, where he spent the previous two years as an assistant coach on Chris Mack's staff. Davis helped the Musketeers to back-to-back NCAA Tournament appearances, including a run to the Sweet Sixteen in 2011-12. He joined the Division I coaching ranks in 2007-08 as a program assistant at Louisville under head coach Rick Pitino and Masiello, who was an assistant on the staff.

Oliver Antigua is the third assistant on the Jaspers' staff. He joined the program in June after a successful career at St. Raymond High School in the Bronx, where he coached the Ravens to five Catholic High School Athletic Association (CHSAA) Class AA championships over his 13-year tenure. Antigua's brother Orlando is an assistant coach at Kentucky.

Jaspers in the Hall

Coinciding with the MAAC Championships moving to the MassMutual Center in Springfield, Mass., through 2014, a 600-square foot permanent display dedicated to the conference opened at the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame in October 2011. The MAAC Experience includes historical items and artifacts from the MAAC's rich 32-year history. In addition, all 10 MAAC schools have their own display within the exhibit. Manhattan's display features a commemorative No. 23 jersey worn by former Manhattan player, coach and athletic director Jack Powers '58, the former Executive Director of the NIT. Powers was Manhattan's first men's basketball inductee to the MAAC Honor Roll in March at the 2012 MAAC Championships.

The 2013 MAAC Honor Roll Class will feature Manhattan standout Keith Bullock '93 who will be inducted into The MAAC Experience exhibit this March during the MAAC Tournament. The 1990 MAAC Rookie of the Year, Bullock helped lead a renaissance of Manhattan basketball. He was a key starter on the 1992 team that snapped the Jaspers' 15-year postseason drought by earning a berth in the National Invitation Tournament (NIT).

As a senior in 1993, Bullock was named the MAAC Player of the Year and MAAC Tournament MVP, as Manhattan won its first MAAC title and reached the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 1958. A three-time First Team All-MAAC selection, Bullock finished his career with 1,992 points, 1,012 rebounds, ranking him second in program history on both lists.

#The6thBorough

#The6thBorough is the newly formed Official Manhattan Basketball Student Section in Draddy Gymnasium that made its debut at Manhattan Madness in October.

#The6thBorough was a concept developed by Student Government in conjunction with the Student Activities Office and the Athletic Department. #The6thBorough is located in the end zone closest to the visiting bench. Over 2,000 #The6thBorough t-shirts were distributed to students in an effort to organize involvement at basketball games and build a stronger home court advantage.

Manhattan All-Time Record

In its 107th season, the Manhattan College men's basketball program boasts a 1274-1145 (.527) overall record and 238-268 (.470) MAAC mark in 32 seasons as a conference member. The Jaspers' storied men's basketball team was established in 1904-05 and served a two-year hiatus due to World War II (1943-44 & 1944-45).

Jaspers at Draddy Gymnasium

Draddy Gymnasium has played host to several Jasper victories and memorable moments since it opened in 1978. Manhattan holds a 243-177 (.579) all-time record at Draddy Gymnasium.

What's a Jasper?

The unique nickname of Manhattan College's athletic teams, the Jaspers, comes from one of the College's most memorable figures, Brother Jasper of Mary, F.S.C., who served at the College in the late 19th century.

One of the greatest achievements of Brother Jasper was that he brought the then little-known sport of baseball to Manhattan College and became the team's first coach. Since Brother Jasper was also the Prefect of Discipline, he supervised the student fans at Manhattan College baseball games while also directing the team itself.

During one particularly warm and humid day when Manhattan College was playing a semi-pro baseball team called the Metropolitan, Brother Jasper noticed the Manhattan students were becoming restless and edgy as Manhattan came to bat in the seventh inning of a close game. To relieve the tension, Brother Jasper called time-out and told the students to stand up and stretch for a few minutes until the game resumed.

Since the College annually played the New York Giants in the late 1880's and into the 1890's at the old Polo Grounds, the Manhattan College practice of the "seventh inning stretch" spread into the major leagues, where it has now become a time-honored custom practiced by millions of fans annually.

2012-2013 Manhattan Men's Basketball Game Notes

Head Coach Steve Masiello Second Season (27-27)

Manhattan College head coach Steve Masiello has quickly restored the winning tradition to the storied men's basketball program in Riverdale, laying the foundation for the Jaspers' return to prominence. Masiello has rejuvenated the Jaspers with strong national recruiting that has transformed Manhattan into a top contender in the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference for years to come.

Long-time ESPN college basketball commentator Dick Vitale has even noted, "Remember this name, Steve Masiello. A young, rising coach doing a great job at Manhattan."

Masiello was named Manhattan's 23rd head coach in program history on April 11, 2011. He arrived back in his native New York after spending six years in the Big East as an assistant at Louisville under head coach Rick Pitino.

In his first season at Manhattan, the Jaspers enjoyed the biggest turnaround in the nation, posting 21 victories in 2011-2012, a 15-win improvement from the previous season. It went down as the largest turnaround in program history, and he posted the second most wins by a Manhattan first-year head coach, trailing only Fran Fraschilla's 23 victories in 1992-93.

Masiello garnered Co-Coach of the Year honors by the Metropolitan Writer's Association in 2011-12 as he led Manhattan to its first postseason appearance since 2006. The Jaspers advanced to the Second Round of the CollegeInsider.com Tournament (CIT). Masiello mentored three All-MAAC selections in 2011-2012, including First Team honoree and the league's scoring champion George Beamon.

The Jaspers have also excelled in the classroom under Masiello. Three players earned both MAAC All-Academic distinction and the prestigious Honors Court recognition by the National Association of Basketball Coaches (NABC) in 2012. It marked the most student-athlete honorees on both award lists out of the 10 MAAC institutions.

Over his six-year tenure at Louisville, Masiello helped lead the Cards to a 148-61 (.708) overall record, six straight 20-win seasons and four NCAA Tournament appearances. Louisville advanced to the Elite Eight twice (2008 & 2009) during that time. Masiello played a vital role in building Louisville's 2009 Big East Championship team, which won 31 games, including a program record 16 in conference, and entered the NCAA Tournament as the No. 1 overall seed. One of the nation's most renowned recruiters, Masiello effectively directed the Cards' recruiting efforts by signing four Top-20 recruiting classes, which included four McDonald's All-Americans over his time in Louisville. The Cards' 2008 recruiting class garnered a No. 4 national ranking, featuring 2008 USA Today High School National Player of the Year and future NBA player Samardo Samuels.

Masiello was named one of the nation's Top 25 collegiate assistant coaches according to FoxSports.com (2010) & Rivals.com (2007). He managed the Cards' game preparation and scouting responsibilities for his last three years with the program as Louisville amassed a 76-29 (.724) overall record, including a 39-15 (.722) mark in the Big East during this stretch.

Masiello is back in Riverdale for his second coaching tenure at Manhattan. He previously helped lead the Jaspers to three postseason appearances in four years (2001-2005) as an assistant, which included two trips to the NCAA Tournament (2003 & 2004) and one to the NIT (2002). Under his tutelage, the Jaspers posted an 83-36 (.697) overall record and won the 2003 & 2004 Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference Championships. Masiello was a key contributor on the Jaspers' coaching staff which helped lead Manhattan to its third NCAA Tournament victory in program history in 2004, defeating Florida in the First Round. Prior to Manhattan, Masiello served as the administrative assistant at Tulane under head coach Shawn Finney for one year (2000-01).

A 2000 graduate of the University of Kentucky with a degree in communications, Masiello was a four-year member of the Wildcats' basketball team, playing under head coaches Rick Pitino (1996-97) and Tubby Smith (1997-2000). During his playing career, Kentucky went to the Final Four twice (1997 & 1998), advancing to the National Championship game both times and winning the title in 1998. Masiello was named the Wildcats' co-captain his senior year. Masiello hails from White Plains, N.Y., and attended Archbishop Stepinac High School. He completed his final two years at the Harvey School in Katonah, N.Y., where he helped the basketball program win the New England Prep School Athletic Association Championship. Masiello also served as a ball boy for the New York Knicks during his youth.
