News and Notes

Manhattan plays its fifth straight game in New York City and returns to Draddy Gymnasium where the Jaspers are undefeated this season. The Jaspers picked up wins over Hofstra (Nov. 21) and Siena (Dec. 9) in the team's only two home games of a challenging schedule. Manhattan has played nine of its 11 games away from home, which included four contests against programs that were 2012 postseason participants (Louisville, Harvard, Dayton, LIU Brooklyn).

Stony Brook is the fifth team on the Jaspers non-conference schedule that is coming off a 20+ win season. The Seawolves qualified for the National Invitation Tournament (NIT) after winning the America East Regular Season Championship in 2011-12.

Manhattan looks to end a three game slide as it is coming off a 69-58 setback at Columbia on Saturday. Junior forward Rhamel Brown erupted for a career-high 25 points, going along with nine rebounds, two blocks and a steal against the Lions.

The contest between Manhattan and Stony Brook will air live on ESPN3. It marks the first time the Manhattan Athletic Department will partner directly with ESPN for a national broadcast. ESPN3 is available to 79 million homes and approximately 21 million U.S. college students and U.S.-based military personnel. It marks the first of six appearances Manhattan will make on the ESPN family of networks. Manhattan plays host to five of these broadcasts at Draddy Gymnasium with the possibility to be selected for an additional televised game during the MAAC's wildcard date on March 1, which could place the Jaspers contest with Fairfield on either ESPN2 or ESPNU.

2012-2013 Manhattan Men's Basketball Game Notes

Scouting Report Manhattan

The Jaspers play their fifth straight contest in New York City, returning to Draddy Gymnasium for the first time since Dec. 9 when Manhattan rolled past Siena 75-55. Manhattan is 2-0 at home with the Jaspers other home victory coming over Hofstra (67-56) on Nov. 21.

Manhattan averaged 71.0 points and has limited opponents to 55.5 points per game at Draddy Gymnasium. Junior forward Rhamel Brown has recorded an 18.0 scoring average, shooting 84.2% (16-19) from the field in the Jaspers' two home victories. Brown is coming off a career-high 25 point performance in the Jaspers' 69-58 setback to Columbia on Saturday. The 6'7", 230-pound preseason All-MAAC selection leads the conference in field goal percentage (57.3%), blocks (1.9 bpg) and is fifth in rebounding (6.5 rpg).

Jaspers' sophomore forward Emmy Andujar recorded his third double-digit scoring performance in the last four games on Saturday against the Lions. Andujar scored 11 points on 4-for-5 shooting. Over the last four contests, Andujar is averaging 9.5 points, 4.0 rebounds and has shot 57.7% (15-26) from the field. He scored 11 points, shooting 5-for-8 (62.5%) and pulled down a season-high seven rebounds in the Jaspers' last victory over Siena at Draddy Gymnasium.

Manhattan has received good minutes from freshman forward Shane Richards in the last two games. Richards followed a career-high 18 point performance against South Carolina (Dec. 22) with nine points off the bench at Columbia. Richards averaged 13.5 points, knocking down 50% (9-18) of his three-point field goal attempts in these games. He leads the team with 14 three-pointers this season.

Manhattan is second in the MAAC with 7.5 steals per contest. The Jaspers are also in the top half of the league in blocked shots (3.4).

Stony Brook

The Seawolves have won four of their last six games, but are coming off consecutive road losses at Maryland and Seton Hall. Stony Brook is led by junior guard Anthony Jackson who has averaged 12.9 points starting all 12 games this season. Jackson also tops the team with a 93.8% (30-32) free-throw shooting mark.

Junior guard Dave Coley led Stony Brook its last time out in a one-point loss to Seton Hall on Friday at the Prudential Center. Coley scored a game-high 21 points against the Pirates. Jackson had a chance to win the contest with a three-point attempt that was off the mark in the Seawolves' final possession in the 60-59 loss. Coley is averaging 11.9 points and 4.1 rebounds this season.

The Seawolves have also received solid production from freshman forward Jameel Warney who has posted 11.8 points, 7.2 rebounds and is shooting a team-best 60% from the field this season. Warney was named the America East Rookie of the Week on Dec. 24 after the 6'8", 255-pound native of Plainfield, N.J. averaged 17.0 points, 6.0 rebounds and 3.0 blocks in two games against Sacred Heart and Maryland.

Stony Brook was picked second in the 2012-13 America East Preseason Poll. The Seawolves have gone 3-0 against MAAC opponents this season, winning at Marist, Rider and at home against Canisius. Stony Brook is 5-2 in road games this season.

December 29, 2012
New York, N.Y. - Levien Gymnasium

In the fifth straight game without two-time All-MAAC senior guard George Beamon, Manhattan suffered a 69-58 setback at Columbia on Saturday. The Jaspers got off to a slow offensive start shooting 28% (7-25) and 1-for-8 (12.5%) from downtown in the first half as they could not rally back from a 17-point halftime deficit.

Jaspers' junior forward Rhamel Brown exploded for a career-high 25 points on 9-for-19 shooting. Brown grabbed nine rebounds, blocked two shots and had a steal in 35 minutes of action. He also shot 7-for-12 from the free-throw line.

Columbia knocked down 12-of-23 (52.2%) three-point field goal attempts with sophomore Steve Frankoski leading the way with six. Frankoski finished with a team-high 18 points off the bench. The Lions shot 48.8% (21-43) from the field, 78.9% (15-19) at the free-throw line and scored 20 points off Manhattan's 15 turnovers.

Manhattan scored 41 points in the second half, marking the highest scoring performance for the Jaspers in a half this season. The Jaspers shot 52.0% (13-25) with Brown scoring 16 of his 25 points in the final 20 minutes. Manhattan managed to cut Columbia's lead to eight, but could not get any closer with the Lions' sharp shooting.

Jaspers' sophomore forward Emmy Andujar was the only other Jasper to score in double-figures with 11 points on 4-for-5 shooting. Freshman forward Shane Richards knocked down three three-pointers to lead the Manhattan bench with nine points.

Stony Brook, N.Y. - Pritchard Gymnasium

Kidani Brutus buried seven three-pointers and finished with a game-high 25 points leading Manhattan to a 64-63 overtime victory at Stony Brook in the 2011 ESPNU BracketBuster. Brutus shot 9-for-11 from the field and grabbed seven rebounds. Jaspers' guard George Beamon added 23 points and six rebounds.

Brutus hit a go-ahead three with one minute remaining in overtime as the Jaspers held off the Seawolves in the programs' first ever meeting. Manhattan shot 60% (9-15) from three-point range and 44.0% (22-50) from the field.

The contest featured seven lead changes and the score was tied on five occasions. The Jaspers overcame a 31-25 halftime deficit and trailed by as many as 11 points (45-34) with 10:37 left before it made a final charge. Manhattan went on a 21-10 run with Brutus and Beamon combining for 17 points to force overtime.

In overtime, Brutus buried a trey to break a 61-tie. Marcus Rouse hit two free-throws to pull Stony Brook within 64-63 with 44 seconds left, and then the Seawolves' guard Bryan Dougher missed a potential game winning finger roll as time expired. Rouse led Stony Brook with 15 points and Dougher added 11.

Series History

Manhattan and Stony Brook will meet for the second time in series history. The Jaspers boast a 14-6 all-time record versus the current members of the America East.

The Jaspers have won their previous three meetings and four of the last five contests with America East opponents. Manhattan's last victory came over an America East opponent was in the 2012 CollegeInsider.com Tournament (CIT). The Jaspers picked up their first postseason win in six years defeating Albany 89-79 in the First Round at SEFCU Arena in Albany, N.Y.

Jaspers' guard George Beamon exploded for a season-high 34 points shooting 13-for-19 with two three-pointers against the Great Danes. He finished with a double-double grabbing 10 rebounds.

Jaspers Perfect at Home

Manhattan won both of its home games this season defeating Hofstra (Nov. 21) and Siena (Dec. 9). The Jaspers stingy defense held these opponents to 55.5 points, while averaging 71.0. Junior forward Rhamel Brown has averaged 18.0 points, 5.5 rebounds, 3.5 blocks and is shooting 84.2% (16-19) from the field in these wins. Junior point guard Michael Alvarado has also increased his production at Draddy Gymnasium averaging 11.0 points per game.

Leading the Way

Manhattan junior forward Rhamel Brown has been spectacular in the Jaspers' three victories this season. Brown is averaging 14.3 points, 5.7 rebounds and is shooting 82.6% (19-23) from the field in wins over Hofstra (Nov. 21), Fordham (Nov. 29) and Siena (Dec. 9). The 6'7" Brooklyn native scored 15 points by shooting a perfect 7-for-7 and had eight rebounds in the triumph over Hofstra. In the Jaspers' most recent victory over Siena, Brown erupted for a career-high 21 points shooting 9-for-12 from the field and 3-for-3 from the free-throw line.

The Jaspers have rallied behind Brown's superb play in wins as they average 11 points more per game (69.0 ppg). Manhattan has also posted a 45.5% field goal percentage, while holding opponents to 56.3 points and a 36.8% shooting mark.

Stores Garners MAAC Rookie of the Week

First-year guard RaShawn Stores was named the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference Rookie of the Week on Dec. 10. The 5'11" point guard from the Bronx averaged 10.5 points shooting 61.5% (8-13) from the field in two games. He also added nine assists without having a turnover and buried 71.4% (5-7) of his three-point field goal attempts.

Stores had his top performance of the week against Siena (Dec. 9) as he helped the Jaspers earn a 75-55 triumph. He set career highs with 12 points and six assists, while shooting a perfect 4-for-4 from three-point territory. Stores also grabbed five rebounds and swiped two steals in 24 minutes off the bench.

Block Party

Jaspers' junior forward Rhamel Brown engraved his name in the Manhattan men's basketball record book. The 6'7" forward set the program's single season blocks record last season with 84 rejections. Brown's 2.47 blocks per game average ranked in the top-20 nationally in 2011-2012, leading the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference in this category for the second straight year.

In 2010-2011, Brown blocked 68 shots, which is the highest total ever by a Jasper freshman, leading the MAAC with 2.2 blocks per game.

Brown is second on the program's career blocks list and on pace to break the Manhattan record held by Steve Grant (220, 1974-78).

2012-2013 Manhattan Men's Basketball Game Notes

Beamon Among Top Returning Scorers in Nation

Manhattan guard George Beamon entered his final season in Riverdale ranked among the top returning scorers in the country. Beamon, the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference's (MAAC) reigning scoring champion, has finished in the top-3 of the league's chart the last two years. The 6'4" native of Roslyn, N.Y., averaged a career-high 19.0 points per game last season, which has landed him 7th place among all returning players in NCAA Division I. Beamon's 2011-2012 scoring average is also the 6th highest among returning seniors for the 2012-2013 campaign.

Top Returning Scorers 2011-2012 NCAA Division I Leaders
1. Doug McDermott, Creighton	22.9 ppg
2. Shane Gibson, Sacred Heart	22.0 ppg
3. CJ McCollum, Lehigh	21.9 ppg
4. Nate Wolters, South Dakota State	21.2 ppg
Frank Gaines, IPFW	21.2 ppg
6. Colt Ryan, Evansville	20.5 ppg
7. George Beamon, Manhattan	19.0 ppg
Isaiah Canaan, Murray State	19.0 ppg
9. Devon Saddler, Delaware	18.8 ppg
Tim Frazier, Penn State	18.8 ppg

Manhattan Inks Three to NLI's

Manhattan signed three highly-touted student-athletes during the NCAA Early Signing Period. Former five-star recruit and elite junior college prospect Chris Thomas (Denver, Colo./Chipola College), along with incoming freshmen, 6'10" center Carlton Allen (Ewing, N.J./Life Center Academy) and 6'0" guard Tyler Wilson (Bronx, N.Y./Cardinal Hayes) signed their National Letters of Intent to play for the Jaspers in 2013-14.

Thomas is 6'5" shooting guard from Colorado who is regarded as one of the purest scorers in the nation with high-major talent. He will come to Manhattan after one season playing at Chipola College for head coach Patrick Blake in Marianna, Fla. Chipola was the preseason fourth-ranked team in the country on the National Junior College Athletic Association (NJCAA) poll. Thomas was ranked as the #1 shooting guard and fifth overall prospect by Rivals.com and was an ESPN Super 60 recruit.

Allen comes to Manhattan from Life Center Academy in Burlington, N.J., where he plays for head coach Pervis Ellison, an 11-year NBA veteran. Allen is a 6'10", 240-pound student-athlete who provides a low post scoring threat for the Jaspers. He maneuvers well in the deep post and has a repertoire of inside moves, including the jump hook, according to ESPN.com. ESPN.com also ranks Allen as the 41st player at his position in 2013 class.

Wilson is a speedy guard who handles the ball well and is a legitimate scoring threat. He helped lead Cardinal Hayes to the Catholic High School Athletic Association (CHSAA) Class AA inter-sectional semifinals as a junior. He averaged approximately 12 points and seven assists per game last year, after playing two years at Rice High School.

Climbing Scoring Chart

Jaspers' senior guard George Beamon has quickly climbed the program's career scoring chart in the last three seasons. Despite seeing limited action (6.9 mpg) and scoring only 80 points as a freshman, Beamon is within striking distance of advancing into the top-5 all-time.

Career Points
1. Luis Flores (2001-04)	2,046
2. Keith Bullock (1989-93)	1,992

MAAC Player of the Week Honors

Manhattan senior guard George Beamon was named MAAC Player of the Week on Nov. 26 after averaging 24.0 points and 5.5 rebounds in the two contests against Hofstra and Dayton. Beamon shot 64% (16-25) from the field and 81.3% (13-16) at the free-throw line, making a seamless transition back into the starting lineup after missing the Jaspers' first two contests with an injury.

Beamon exploded for 29 points and grabbed seven rebounds to lead Manhattan to a 67-56 victory over Hofstra. He shot 10-for-15 (66.7%) from the field and it was his 19th career 20+point performance.

The Roslyn, N.Y., native continued his superb play at Dayton as he delivered his 50th straight double-figure scoring effort. Beamon finished with 19 points, four rebounds, three assists and three steals. He was 6-for-10 (60%) from the field and 6-for-6 at the free-throw line.

Jasper Garners Preseason All-America Honors

Manhattan senior guard George Beamon was named to the Preseason Lou Henson All-America Team by CollegeInsider.com. The Lou Henson award is presented annually to the top mid-major player in college basketball. Norfolk State's Kyle O'Quinn received the honor in 2011-12. Beamon, a two-time All-MAAC selection, was joined by Siena's OD Anosike as the only players in the conference to receive the preseason recognition.

The Masiello Project

Manhattan head coach Steve Masiello quickly restored the winning tradition in Riverdale with the greatest turn around in program history last season. The Jaspers' 21-13 overall record last season was the second best record by a Manhattan first-year head coach post-World War II era. It is only behind Fran Frascilla who finished the 1992-93 campaign 23-7 after inheriting a team coming off a 25-9 season under the direction of head coach Steve Lappas.

Manhattan Top of the Heap in Media Polls

After only one season with Steve Masiello at the helm, Manhattan was picked to finish the 2012-13 campaign atop the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference (MAAC), a position the program was familiar with during his time as an assistant coach (2001-2005). According to Yahoo! Sports and CBSSports.com, the Jaspers are the MAAC's preseason favorite. CBSSports.com also had Manhattan senior guard George Beamon as the projected conference Player of the Year.

Manhattan Second on MAAC Preseason Poll

Manhattan garnered its highest preseason ranking in seven years on the annual MAAC Preseason Coaches' Poll. The Jaspers were selected to finish as the league's runner up in 2012-13 as announced on ESPN3. Manhattan received two first place votes, and was eight points behind preseason favorite Loyola, the defending conference champion.

Preseason All-MAAC Honors

Manhattan had a league-best four players selected to the 2012-13 Preseason All-MAAC Team. Senior guard George Beamon was named to the First Team, while juniors Michael Alvarado, Rhamel Brown and sophomore Emmy Andujar received Third Team honors. These four Jaspers combined for 60% of the team's scoring last season and more than 50% of rebounding and assists for a squad that won 21-games.

Beamon is a two-time All-MAAC selection who was named to the First Team last year after leading the MAAC in scoring with 19.0 points per game. He posted double-figures in the scoring column in all 33 appearances in 2011-12 and led the team in points 26 times. Beamon ranked in the top-25 nationally for scoring average, and he finished in the top-10 of the MAAC for field goal percentage (48.5% - 10th), free-throw shooting (80.1% - 4th), steals (1.5 - 6th), three-point field goal percentage (42.7% - 4th) and three-point field goals (61 - 9th). Beamon scored 1,131 points in the previous two seasons.

Alvarado, a junior guard, was named to the All-MAAC Third Team in 2011-12. He started 26 of 30 appearances and tied for second on the team in scoring (8.5) and assists per game (3.2), which was also the sixth best average in the MAAC. Alvarado ranked among the leaders in the conference with a 76.6% free-throw percentage.

Brown is a 6'7" forward who earned the MAAC Defensive Player of the Year award last season. Brown led the MAAC with 2.5 blocks per game. He appeared in all 34 games for the Jaspers averaging 7.9 points and 4.9 rebounds in 19.1 minutes per game. He ranked second in the MAAC with a 60.1% field goal percentage.

Andujar was a MAAC All-Rookie Team selection in 2011-12. He started 32 of 33 appearances tying for second on the team in scoring with Alvarado (8.5 ppg). The 6'6" forward dished out a team-high 105 assists and led Manhattan with 189 rebounds.

Manhattan Staff

Manhattan second-year head coach Steve Masiello reloaded his coaching staff for the 2012-2013 season after former assistants Scott Padgett and Rashon Burno earned elevated coaching positions at other NCAA Division I institutions. During the offseason, Padgett was named associate head coach at Samford University in Birmingham, Ala., and Burno became an assistant coach under two-time national championship head coach Billy Donovan at the University of Florida.

The Jaspers current staff still features Associate Head Coach Matt Grady, who enters his second season in Riverdale. He brings a plethora of high level collegiate experience from his time at Louisville, Cincinnati, Murray State and Morehead State. Grady oversees the primary scouting and game planning responsibilities. "Matt is one of the best basketball minds out there," says Masiello.

Masiello reunited with assistant coach Rasheen Davis, who joined the staff in April. Davis came to Riverdale from Xavier, where he spent the previous two years as an assistant coach on Chris Mack's staff. Davis helped the Musketeers to back-to-back NCAA Tournament appearances, including a run to the Sweet Sixteen in 2011-12. He joined the Division I coaching ranks in 2007-08 as a program assistant at Louisville under head coach Rick Pitino and Masiello, who was an assistant on the staff.

Oliver Antigua is the third assistant on the Jaspers' staff. He joined the program in June after a successful career at St. Raymond High School in the Bronx, where he coached the Ravens to five Catholic High School Athletic Association (CHSAA) Class AA championships over his 13-year tenure. Antigua's brother Orlando is an assistant coach at Kentucky.

Jaspers in the Hall

Coinciding with the MAAC Championships moving to the MassMutual Center in Springfield, Mass., through 2014, a 600-square foot permanent display dedicated to the conference opened at the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame in October 2011. The MAAC Experience includes historical items and artifacts from the MAAC's rich 32-year history. In addition, all 10 MAAC schools have their own display within the exhibit. Manhattan's display features a commemorative No. 23 jersey worn by former Manhattan player, coach and athletic director Jack Powers '58, the former Executive Director of the NIT. Powers was Manhattan's first men's basketball inductee to the MAAC Honor Roll in March at the 2012 MAAC Championships.

The 2013 MAAC Honor Roll Class will feature Manhattan standout Keith Bullock '93 who will be inducted into The MAAC Experience exhibit this March during the MAAC Tournament. The 1990 MAAC Rookie of the Year, Bullock helped lead a renaissance of Manhattan basketball. He was a key starter on the 1992 team that snapped the Jaspers' 15-year postseason drought by earning a berth in the National Invitation Tournament (NIT).

As a senior in 1993, Bullock was named the MAAC Player of the Year and MAAC Tournament MVP, as Manhattan won its first MAAC title and reached the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 1958. A three-time First Team All-MAAC selection, Bullock finished his career with 1,992 points, 1,012 rebounds, ranking him second in program history on both lists.

#The6thBorough

#The6thBorough is the newly formed Official Manhattan Basketball Student Section in Draddy Gymnasium that made its debut at Manhattan Madness in October.

#The6thBorough was a concept developed by Student Government in conjunction with the Student Activities Office and the Athletic Department. #The6thBorough is located in the end zone closest to the visiting bench. Over 2,000 #The6thBorough t-shirts were distributed to students in an effort to organize involvement at basketball games and build a stronger home court advantage.

Manhattan All-Time Record

In its 107th season, the Manhattan College men's basketball program boasts a 1271-1139 (.528) overall record and 235-263 (.472) MAAC mark in 32 seasons as a conference member. The Jaspers' storied men's basketball team was established in 1904-05 and served a two-year hiatus due to World War II (1943-44 & 1944-45).

Jaspers at Draddy Gymnasium

Draddy Gymnasium has played host to several Jasper victories and memorable moments since it opened in 1978. Manhattan holds a 242-174 (.579) all-time record at Draddy Gymnasium.

What's a Jasper?

The unique nickname of Manhattan College's athletic teams, the Jaspers, comes from one of the College's most memorable figures, Brother Jasper of Mary, F.S.C., who served at the College in the late 19th century.

One of the greatest achievements of Brother Jasper was that he brought the then little-known sport of baseball to Manhattan College and became the team's first coach. Since Brother Jasper was also the Prefect of Discipline, he supervised the student fans at Manhattan College baseball games while also directing the team itself.

During one particularly warm and humid day when Manhattan College was playing a semi-pro baseball team called the Metropolitan, Brother Jasper noticed the Manhattan students were becoming restless and edgy as Manhattan came to bat in the seventh inning of a close game. To relieve the tension, Brother Jasper called time-out and told the students to stand up and stretch for a few minutes until the game resumed.

Since the College annually played the New York Giants in the late 1880's and into the 1890's at the old Polo Grounds, the Manhattan College practice of the "seventh inning stretch" spread into the major leagues, where it has now become a time-honored custom practiced by millions of fans annually.

2012-2013 Manhattan Men's Basketball Game Notes

Head Coach Steve Masiello Second Season (24-21)

Manhattan College head coach Steve Masiello has quickly restored the winning tradition to the storied men's basketball program in Riverdale, laying the foundation for the Jaspers' return to prominence. Masiello has rejuvenated the Jaspers with strong national recruiting that has transformed Manhattan into a top contender in the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference for years to come.

Long-time ESPN college basketball commentator Dick Vitale has even noted, "Remember this name, Steve Masiello. A young, rising coach doing a great job at Manhattan."

Masiello was named Manhattan's 23rd head coach in program history on April 11, 2011. He arrived back in his native New York after spending six years in the Big East as an assistant at Louisville under head coach Rick Pitino.

In his first season at Manhattan, the Jaspers enjoyed the biggest turnaround in the nation, posting 21 victories in 2011-2012, a 15-win improvement from the previous season. It went down as the largest turnaround in program history, and he posted the second most wins by a Manhattan first-year head coach, trailing only Fran Fraschilla's 23 victories in 1992-93.

Masiello garnered Co-Coach of the Year honors by the Metropolitan Writer's Association in 2011-12 as he led Manhattan to its first postseason appearance since 2006. The Jaspers advanced to the Second Round of the CollegeInsider.com Tournament (CIT). Masiello mentored three All-MAAC selections in 2011-2012, including First Team honoree and the league's scoring champion George Beamon.

The Jaspers have also excelled in the classroom under Masiello. Three players earned both MAAC All-Academic distinction and the prestigious Honors Court recognition by the National Association of Basketball Coaches (NABC) in 2012. It marked the most student-athlete honorees on both award lists out of the 10 MAAC institutions.

Over his six-year tenure at Louisville, Masiello helped lead the Cards to a 148-61 (.708) overall record, six straight 20-win seasons and four NCAA Tournament appearances. Louisville advanced to the Elite Eight twice (2008 & 2009) during that time. Masiello played a vital role in building Louisville's 2009 Big East Championship team, which won 31 games, including a program record 16 in conference, and entered the NCAA Tournament as the No. 1 overall seed. One of the nation's most renowned recruiters, Masiello effectively directed the Cards' recruiting efforts by signing four Top-20 recruiting classes, which included four McDonald's All-Americans over his time in Louisville. The Cards' 2008 recruiting class garnered a No. 4 national ranking, featuring 2008 USA Today High School National Player of the Year and future NBA player Samardo Samuels.

Masiello was named one of the nation's Top 25 collegiate assistant coaches according to FoxSports.com (2010) & Rivals.com (2007). He managed the Cards' game preparation and scouting responsibilities for his last three years with the program as Louisville amassed a 76-29 (.724) overall record, including a 39-15 (.722) mark in the Big East during this stretch.

Masiello is back in Riverdale for his second coaching tenure at Manhattan. He previously helped lead the Jaspers to three postseason appearances in four years (2001-2005) as an assistant, which included two trips to the NCAA Tournament (2003 & 2004) and one to the NIT (2002). Under his tutelage, the Jaspers posted an 83-36 (.697) overall record and won the 2003 & 2004 Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference Championships. Masiello was a key contributor on the Jaspers' coaching staff which helped lead Manhattan to its third NCAA Tournament victory in program history in 2004, defeating Florida in the First Round. Prior to Manhattan, Masiello served as the administrative assistant at Tulane under head coach Shawn Finney for one year (2000-01).

A 2000 graduate of the University of Kentucky with a degree in communications, Masiello was a four-year member of the Wildcats' basketball team, playing under head coaches Rick Pitino (1996-97) and Tubby Smith (1997-2000). During his playing career, Kentucky went to the Final Four twice (1997 & 1998), advancing to the National Championship game both times and winning the title in 1998. Masiello was named the Wildcats' co-captain his senior year. Masiello hails from White Plains, N.Y., and attended Archbishop Stepinac High School. He completed his final two years at the Harvey School in Katonah, N.Y., where he helped the basketball program win the New England Prep School Athletic Association Championship. Masiello also served as a ball boy for the New York Knicks during his youth.
